$7,000 LOSS IN BLAST, FIRE AT ASPHALT PLANT

Damage was estimated at $7,000 Wednesday afternoon when a tanker truck owned by James Gibbons Manufacturing Co., Relay, Md., exploded while being emptied at the Gettysburg Asphalt Co. plant east of here along the Lincoln Highway.

Gettysburg firemen were called at 3:04 o'clock when the tank exploded, ripping the front end from the large tank, breaking windows in the office at the plant and scattering blazing tar over the area.

The tank contained an asphalt pre-mix known as MC-3. It was estimated that something over 1,000 gallons of the material was lost in the explosion and fire.

FOAM STOPPED FIRE

Fire Chief Francis I. Linn said the tank tractor was parked without its trailer at the plant. Men had started to unload the material from the tank. As the contents were being emptied, a burner on the tanker was lighted to make the material more liquid for its transfer to the plant. When the burner was lighted the material inside the tank apparently caught fire and an explosion followed, ripping the front end from the tank.

Chief Linn said chemical foam quickly put out the blaze. He added that apparently pieces of glass from the windows in the front of the office, broken by the blast, struck and shattered windows in the rear of the office.

No one was injured in the explosion.

FIRE CALLS TO BE DIRECTED HERE IN JULY

All fire calls from six county communities will be made through the Quick Call Center at the engine house here after the borough's transfer to the dial telephone system, it was announced at a meeting of the Adams County Quick Call committee at the engine house Wednesday evening.

York Springs, Biglerville, Arendtsville, Bendersville, Aspers and Fairfield fire calls will be made to the Quick Call system when the communities switch to dial phones, bringing to 11 the number of communities for whom all calls come through the local system. At present Gettysburg, Gettysburg, Greenmount, Barlow and Cashtown calls are handled by the Quick Call system.

Under the plan, persons wishing firemen in the 11 communities will dial one number and the call will come directly to the local center. The operator there will take the information and sound the siren at the designated fire house. When the firemen arrive they will be informed by radio of the location of the fire.

EFFECTIVE IN JULY

John M. Caldwell, local United Telephone manager, outlined to the 50 men from 20 fire companies Wednesday night the method of operation of the proposed system. It is expected that the six communities will all be on the dial phone system by July. The delegates urged purchase of a tape recorder for the Quick Call system so the operator there can refer back to the tape recorded information if any question arises.

PLAN "PEG BOARD"

Plans were outlined to set up a "peg board" system at the local center which will permit the operator to

Local Hospital On Accredited List

The Annie M. Warner Hospital has again been placed on the accredited list by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. It has held this rating for many years.

There are approximately 6,000 hospitals eligible for accreditation but Dr. Kenneth B. Babcock, commission director, pointed out that the omission of a hospital from the list did not necessarily mean it had failed to pass an accreditation survey. The accreditation program is a voluntary one and only those hospitals which request surveys are visited. Therefore, some hospitals not listed may not have requested surveys. Hospitals with less than 25 beds are, with rare exceptions, not eligible for accreditation.

GETTYSBURG HIGH JUNIOR ESSAY WINNER

J. Barclay Collins, Gettysburg High School junior, was announced today as the winner in the annual Adams County American Legion Essay Contest.

Attorney John A. MacPhail, chairman of the contest sponsored by the Albert J. Lentz American Legion Post of Gettysburg, Ira Lady Post of Biglerville and Ocker-Snyder Post of Littlestown, said Collins will receive a $25 award for having the winning essay in the county contest and in addition will receive a state senatorial scholarship if he is admitted to the colleges in Pennsylvania to which it applies.

Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins, E. Broadway, is active in the band, choir and student council at the local high school.

Judy Cutshall, Biglerville High School student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Cutshall, Arendtsville, will receive the $15 second prize. Third award $10, goes to Margo Brinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brinton, Hanover R. 5, a student at the New Oxford High School and fourth award, $5, to Donald Storm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Storm, Hanover R. 5, a student at Delone Catholic High School.

The essays were written on the subject "How Does the Free Press Help to Safeguard Democratic Principles?" The award was based on English structure, originality, extent of information and research and evidence of ability to succeed in college.

Judges for the contest were all of the faculty of Gettysburg College: Dr. Milton L. Stokes, Dr. C. E. Jarvis and Prof. Robert S. Knox.

Silver Run Calls To Be Toll Free

Elimination of the 10-cent toll for telephone calls between Littlestown and Silver Run, Md., was approved by the state Public Utility Commission at Harrisburg Wednesday. The order will be effective Sunday.

The commission said Wednesday elimination of the toll will coincide with the company's conversion to dial operation at Littlestown. It was estimated that the subscribers in the Littlestown area will save about $500 a year by the lifting of the toll charge to Silver Run.

The company is setting up regular local service between the Littlestown exchange of the United Telephone Co. and the Silver Run exchange of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. in Maryland.

Other present toll charges out of the Littlestown exchange are not affected by the PUC order.

Kennedy's Farm Program Is Presented To Congress

By OVID A. MARTIN Associated Press Farm Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today asked Congress to delegate to the secretary of agriculture and to the farmers themselves authority to draw up and put into effect programs to raise farm income.

Congress itself would retain only the power to veto a program it did not like.

Kennedy made this proposal to shift the farm program-making process from the lawmakers to farmers and the secretary in a special farm message to Congress. He said he was deeply concerned that present farm programs are "drifting into a chaotic state."

NO COST ESTIMATE

The President also outlined plans to greatly expand distribution of food to the needy at home and abroad.

No cost estimate was given for the over-all provisions of the complex proposals.

BOY SCOUTS HAVE $3,156 IN CAMPAIGN

Contributions toward the current financial drive of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District now total $3,156.80. Jack H. Orner, general chairman for the campaign to raise $5,700, announced today.

Of that amount $1,550 has been raised by 44 donations secured by the Special Gifts division under Dr. W. E. Tilberg, and $1,606.80 has been raised by the community campaigns through the district.

With none of the districts' reports complete the two campaigns nearest to equalling last year's contributions are Fairfield, headed by Robert Wills, and the special gifts committee. Last year special gifts secured $1,767.57. Fairfield, which has secured $404.75 so far, raised $432 last year. The Fairfield report shows 148 contributors last year. So far this year 128 donors have been secured. Last year $50 gave to the special gifts committee.

ONE OVER 1960

One district has exceeded its last year's contributions. Mummasburg provided $30 last year. Canvassers there have already secured $31 in this year's drive.

Littlestown raised $1,150.98 last year. So far this year $500 has been secured by the 39 canvassers.

Reports from other districts show these results to date: Arendtsville, $190.50; Aspers, $45; Bendersville, $68; Biglerville, $62.50; Bonneauville, $20; Cashtown-McKnightstown, $65; Buchanan Valley, nothing; Heidlersburg, $63.05; Hunterstown, $40; Idaville-Gardners, nothing; Orrtanna, $77; and York Springs, $40.

COUNTYANS AT PCA LUNCHEON IN CAMP HILL

Dr. W. E. Tilberg and Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler attended the luncheon meeting of the board of directors of District V of the Pennsylvania Citizens' Association at the Dutch Pantry, Camp Hill, on Wednesday.

The board made an official recommendation to the state association approving the merger of the PCA, the Pennsylvania Welfare Forum and several other similar groups in order to facilitate social welfare work in Pennsylvania. It was announced that a Council on Aging has been approved by the governor and invitations are being sent to statewide organizations, as well as to individuals. A temporary executive committee is in charge and county councils will be set up. A PCA membership campaign will be conducted from April 21 to May 12.

At 2:30 p.m. the board members joined a state-wide group which discussed the governor's budget and plans for major new services for juvenile delinquents, proposals for extension of Pennsylvania's Civil Service coverage which carry potential dangers for health and welfare personnel and tax expenditures for hospital

HOFFMAN RITES HELD

Funeral services were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Pittman Funeral Home, York Springs, for Douglas Ray Hoffman, aged 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hoffman, Idaville, who died in Denver last Friday. The Rev. Arbe J. Dorsey officiated. Burial was made in the Idaville UB Cemetery. The pallbearers were Richard Hoffman, David Griffith, Harold Lupp and Ronald Tate.

Kennedy's Farm Program Is Presented To Congress

Kennedy said effective action to bolster the farm economy is essential if the nation itself is not to be threatened.

Painting a picture of low incomes and dwindling rural buying power, the President said it is "deeply in the interest of all Americans that our agriculture be not only progressive but prosperous."

UP TO FARMERS

Broadened use of food supplies for the needy, he said, would help solve the pressing problems of low farm incomes and the costly government purchase and storage of surpluses, which now total about $0.5 billion.

The idea of letting farmers themselves draft their programs was proposed in several farm bills introduced in the last Congress.

Under the Kennedy proposals, farmer advisory committees would be created to work with the secretary in formulating programs for individual crops and

Receives Warrior Trophy

Clifford B. Snowberger, principal of the Gettysburg High School, is shown holding the South Penn Basketball League championship trophy for the 1960-61 season which he received on behalf of the school from Roger Ecker, honorary captain of the Warrior squad, during the assembly program at the school Wednesday morning. The Warriors had a 16-5 overall record, the best in 13 years. It was the first South Penn title won by Gettysburg in 18 years. (Ramer photo)

To Offer Direct Dialing Service

With the change to dial telephone service in Littlestown Sunday, Gettysburg telephone patrons will be able to complete their station to station calls to Littlestown telephones without operator assistance.

Beginning Sunday when calling Littlestown, instead of dialing 9 and giving the number to the operator, the procedure will be to dial the direct distance dialing code and the new dial number of the Littlestown telephone.

2 NEW SCOUT LEADERS ARE INTRODUCED

Two new commissioners were introduced at a meeting of the commissioners of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District at the engine house here Wednesday night. They are Stewart Long, who will serve Pack, Troop and Post 84 of Littlestown, and Charles Slonaker who will serve units in the Gardners, Aspers, Idaville area.

Reports at the meeting showed the 11 Cub Scout packs now have 373 members; the 15 Boy Scout troops have 383 members and the seven Explorer posts have 91 members, a total of 847 boy members. Goal for 1961 was reported as 875 boys. A total of more than 300 adults, leaders, committee-men and den mothers is also signed for the 33 units.

The "package plan" for purchase of tents was explained.

17 FOR PHILMONT

Seventeen youths have signed for the trip to Philmont Ranch in New Mexico July 21 to August 6. Seventy per cent of the units have made donations toward the fund for the national tribute memorial at Washington, it was announced. Units which have not as yet donated may yet do so.

Plans for a Scoutmasters' outdoor "show and do" session at Camp Tuckahoe April 8 and 9 were announced. All registered Scouters are eligible to attend. Explorer posts were asked to name two delegates from each unit to attend the regional Explorers' conference at Pennsylvania State University July 5, 6, 7 and 8.

Ten junior leaders will be accepted from the area for the junior leaders' training course at Camp Schiff, Mendon, N. J., August 13 to 25, it was announced. The openings will be filled on a "first come—first served" basis.

HOLD WILHIDE SERVICES

Funeral services for Ross Reuben Wilhide, 81, who died Monday afternoon at his home near Union Bridge, were held Thursday afternoon from the Fuss Funeral Home, Taneytown, with the Rev. Seth S. Hestor, officiating. Burial was in Keysville Cemetery. Pallbearers were Joseph Bostian, Joseph Coshun, Frank Bohn, Donald Lambert, Paul Crouse and Ira Albaugh Sr.

JAILED AFTER FAMILY FUSS

Benjamin Thomas, 39, Aspers R. 1, moved from the Warner Hospital to the Adams County jail Wednesday as a result of charges brought against him by his father-in-law.

Thomas was admitted to the hospital March 7 with bullet wounds in the stomach and neck following what police said was a "family fracas" at the home of Thomas and his father-in-law, Charles Smith, 60, near Heidlersburg. Thomas brought charges of aggravated assault and battery against Smith, and Smith brought charges of assault and battery against his son-in-law.

FARMERS TO MEET

The Adams County Farmers Association will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Biglerville Elementary School to discuss tomato marketing. John Cough, of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will talk on the state and national program of the organization.

WILL SELECT APPLE QUEEN ON APRIL 8

Selection of the 1961 apple blossom queen will be the first event in the annual apple blossom celebration sponsored by the Fruit-growers Association of Adams County. The contest, which is open to the public, will be held on April 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Arendtsville Elementary School.

Mrs. Thomas Oyer, R. 3, is chairman of the contest with Mrs. Richard B. Trostle, Biglerville R. 1, serving as chairman of the festivities arrangements for the queen and her court on Apple Blossom Sunday. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Lloyd E. Benner, Fairfield; Mrs. John W. Bream Jr., Orrtanna R. 1; Mrs. Mac Lott, Gardners R. 1, and Mrs. William B. Lower, Biglerville R. 2.

Daughters of Adams County fruitgrowers and orchard workers aged 16 through 21, who are interested in entering the contest, are urged to call committee members for details.

The 1961 queen will be crowned by the reigning queen, Miss Edna Jane Coble, at a ceremony on Apple Blossom Sunday at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. The date of the Sunday celebration, selected to coincide with the height of apple blossom time in the county will be announced later. Last year's date was May 1.

Throughout the year, the apple blossom queen participates in various events relating to the promotion of Adams County apples. Her year is climaxed by entry in the state contest at York, which is a feature of the annual meeting of the Horticulture Association of Pennsylvania, an event won this year by Miss Coble.

As an added attraction, the queen and her court have again been invited to greet several thousand visitors who will visit Adams County via the "Iron Horse," a steam passenger train operated by the Reading Company for railroad enthusiasts and tourists from eastern Pennsylvania cities.

DOUBLE CRASH AT FAIRFIELD

A car and two station wagons were involved in an auto accident a mile east of Fairfield on the Gettysburg Rd. Wednesday afternoon at 4:05 o'clock. Damage was estimated at $750 but no one was reported injured.

State police said Nevin J. Plank, 17, Gettysburg R. 3, was traveling east behind a station wagon operated by John H. Dubbs, 35, of 142 E. Middle St.

Police said Plank was driving faster than Dubbs and when he sought to slow, the brakes on his sedan failed.

To avoid hitting the Dubbs station wagon, Plank, according to police, swerved left and the left side of his auto struck a west-bound station wagon, with the left side of the sedan hitting the left side of the station wagon.

Police said Plank's auto then bounced into the right side of the Dubbs station wagon. As a result of the impact, they said, the Dubbs vehicle struck an embankment along the road.

Damage was estimated at $200 to Plank's car, $250 to the Eyer station wagon, and $300 to Dubbs' vehicle.

PROPERTY IS SOLD

The Colt Park Development Company sold a property on Highland Ave. for $3,500 to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Rehmyer, Gettysburg.

23 American Missionaries And 7 Other White Persons Held By Congolese Soldiers

By DENNIS NEEDLE LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — Congolese soldiers are holding 23 American missionaries and seven other white persons under arrest at Kasongo, in the anarchy-torn province of Kivu, the United Nations reported today.

A U.N. spokesman said the Americans—believed to be Protestant missionaries of the World Grace Testimony or the Evangelical Society African Mission—succeeded in getting out a message saying they were held under guard and were without food.

Malayan U.N. patrols were reported advancing to rescue the Americans from their base at Kindu, more than 100 miles from Kasongo. The Malaysians have been ordered to take them to Kindu so they can be flown to Leopoldville.

This Furnace Really Put Out

CYNTHIANA, Ky. (AP) — No doubt about it, the furnace in Mrs. Kathryn Staton's house really puts out.

Returning from a 10-day vacation, she found the thermostat on the furnace had gone haywire, the furnace had run full blast, the home's temperature had reached an estimated 140 degrees and:

Cooked eggs and very unfrozen foods in the refrigerator; melted candles with the tallow evaporated, leaving only the wicks; piano keys bulged upward; warped floor boards; and the wallpaper peeled off in sheets.

The furnace's thermostat, which had been set at 55 degrees, blew up.

NAME WINNERS IN GIRL SCOUT AREA CONTEST

Winners in the Girl Scout Window Contests in three neighborhoods have been announced by the Adams County Girl Scout office. All of the displays, based on the theme "Honor the Past, Serve the Future," were judged Tuesday.

Brownie Troop 25 and Intermediate Troop 22 were the winners of the two contests in the Gettysburg area. On contest was held for Brownie troops, the other for Intermediates and Seniors. A $5 award was given in each contest.

The display by Brownie Troop 25, led by Mrs. Allen McDannell and Mrs. Alexander Griest, is located in the American Automobile Association window on Lincoln Square. It depicts the past with sketches of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts, and the future by various occupations into which Brownies will progress.

THREE LOCAL JUDGES

The window of Intermediate Troop 22, led by Mrs. William Musser and Mrs. Julius Swope, in the Williams and McDermitt window, Baltimore St., is a pictorial view of Scouting, past, present and future.

Judges for the 16 windows entered in the Gettysburg contest were Mrs. Samuel Miller, Mrs. Richard Naugle, and Mrs. Daniel Teeter.

Honorable mention was given the Brownie Troop 80 display in the Rensselaer window on Carlisle St. and Senior Troop 42 display in the Rea and Derick window.

Judges in the Juliette Low neighborhood, Arendtsville, Bendersville, Biglerville and Cashtown, were Mrs. Glenn Herring, (Continued On Page 5)

Country Club's Egg Hunt April 1

The annual Easter egg hunt for the children of members of the Gettysburg Country Club will be held Saturday, April 1, from 11 a.m. to 12 o'clock. A previous announcement stated incorrectly the hunt would be held on Easter Sunday.

The egg hunt is for children aged one through seven years and is being arranged by Mrs. William Shultz and Mrs. Ted Tussing.

BOOST COUNTY AID GRANTS UP TO $55,807.81

The Adams County commissioners Wednesday voted to distribute $55,807.81 in county aid to the 21 townships and 11 boroughs, an increase of 8.8 per cent over the $51,290.11 provided the districts last year.

The new county Aid program also was based on the new census figures and new mileages for road with the result that, while most districts will receive more than they did last year, nine will receive less.

Commissioners' Clerk Clerk Crosby N. Hartzell said the new county aid figure was based on $42 per mile for roads and 53½ cents per person which divides the allocation into approximately 50 per cent each for mileage and population. The amount listed, based on mileage is $28,037.52. The amount based on population is $27,769.71.

YORK SPRINGS LOST MOST

Hartzell said the percentages are about the same as in prior years and apparently some clerical errors over the years provided most of those who are "cut" this year with more than their share of the total during prior years.

Recalculating the entire amount on the mileage and population figures disclosed the errors that cropped up in some instances. York Springs which lost population in the last ten years suffered the largest loss in revenue under the new allocation. It will receive $211.82 in county aid, a drop of $90.62 from last year's county aid payment. The drop would have been greater but the borough increased its streets by one-tenth of a mile during the last decade. The new figures reveal the county districts increased mileage by 5.97 miles to 667.56 miles during the period. At the same time population of the county increased by 7,709.

OTHER LOSERS

Districts in addition to York Springs which lost money in the new calculations included New Oxford, which will receive $882.11, a decrease of $16.84. It gained only 41 population the last ten years.

Mount Joy Twp. gained 337 population but lost $18.16 in the refiguring. It will now receive $2,355.30. Menallen gained 313 population but lost $24.01 in the new allocation. It will receive $2,510.03. Littlestown had a gain of 121 (Continued On Page 2) dian brigade ordered to U.N. duty in the Congo.

Despite the Congo government's bitter condemnation of the U.N. reinforcement by Indians, there was no trouble.

By early morning 200 soldiers and 28 tons of jeeps, weapons, ammunition and equipment had arrived.

Many of the first Gurkha arrivals are veterans of the World War II campaign against the Japanese in Burma.

TO BE IN LEOPOLDVILLE

U.N. officers said the Indians would be stationed temporarily in Leopoldville, Congolese sources in Elisabethville Wednesday said they are expected to be assigned eventually to North Katanga, where President Mobutu's troops have been trying to crush tribesmen supporting the rebel Stanleyville regime.

On the political front, Premier Joseph Ileo of the Leopoldville government disclosed negotiations are under way to bring rebel-held Oriental Province into the proposed Congolese confederation.

Ileo said Gen. Victor Lundula, commander of the rebel army, had sent him a telegram expressing a desire to reach an amicable settlement.

ator to place all equipment "at engine house" or "in service" columns. Thus when a call comes for a company or there is need for additional equipment at a fire the operator can ascertain immediately what equipment is available.

The Adams County Fire Chiefs Association was asked to work out a plan whereby, when two or more companies are at the scene of one fire, one person is designated to relay all messages to and from the Quick Call system, thus eliminating interference between calls and "clearing the air lanes" for easier communications. All companies were requested not to make tests of equipment or seek information concerning the fire by radio in order to prevent interference when companies are fighting fires. It was decided that main station will from time to time report on the location of the fire for the information of other fire companies.

In the future companies calling main stations in the county will call them by name instead of time to time report on the location of the fire for the information of other fire companies.

South Africa Breaks Away From British Commonwealth

By RAYMOND E. PALMER
LONDON (AP)—South Africa's walkout from the British Commonwealth was seen today as a big boost to the Commonwealth's influence in Africa and Asia.

Britons generally accepted the break as inevitable while South Africa adhered rigidly to white supremacy. But they held hope for a change in policy that would lead the African nation back to the multiracial family of nations that replaced the empire.

South Africa's Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd, outwardly nonchalant but reported privately saddened, remained in London, to take part in the closing sessions of the Commonwealth ministers' conference. South Africa's membership does not officially end until the nation becomes a republic May 31.

FAREWELL RECEPTION
Aides said Verwoerd would also attend Queen Elizabeth's farewell reception for the visiting ministers.

Most British newspapers felt South Africa would return to the fold some day. "Good riddance," said the left-wing Daily Mirror. The Laborite Daily Herald said the alliance had gained strength. But the empire-minded Daily Express saw a dangerous precedent, asking, "who can say which member will be picked on next for ostracism—and on what ground?"

White South Africans of British descent were shocked by the severance of the two-century-old ties with Britain. Opposition political leaders challenged Verwoerd to put the issue to a referendum.

"BEGINNING OF END"

But white nationalists, the Dutch-descended Boers, claimed Verwoerd's walkout meant the "beginning of the end" for the Commonwealth and applauded his defiance of Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah, Indian Prime Minister Nehru and the other dark-skinned Commonwealth prime ministers. There was open talk that South Africa should also get out of the United Nations, because of the persistent criticism from the world organization's growing nonwhite membership.

Black Africans openly cheered what they regarded as a decisive setback to racism.

Sir Abubakar Tafewa Balewa of Nigeria, whose populous African nation joined the Commonwealth only six months ago upon gaining independence from Britain, called it "a blessing in disguise."

"SURVIVE CRISIS"

Chief Minister Julius K. Nyerere of Tanganyika, a British-administered U.N. trust territory in East Africa approaching independence, said the Commonwealth "has survived its greatest crisis." Jamaican political leaders were overjoyed. Prime Minister Norman Manley cabled congratulations to British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Acting Prime Minister John McEwen told the Australian Parliament in Canberra he hoped South Africa would change its mind. He warned against recriminations. Opposition leader Arthur Calwell said "South Africa cannot stand alone as an independent republic in a sea of color. For economic reasons I believe she will renew—possibly under a new prime minister—her application for admission to the Commonwealth."

CUMBERLAND BEST IN MATH COUNTIANS AT

For the first time since the annual high school mathematics contests were initiated several years ago, top honors in the Adams-Cumberland District went to Cumberland County schools. The third highest team score in the two-county area was registered by Delone Catholic's team. That school has been the winner in this area for the last several years.

Top honors this year go to the three-pupil team from Cedar Cliff High School and the top three pupils from Carlisle Senior High School placed second. Three pupils from Cedar Cliff turned in the three highest individual scores. Team scores are the sum of the scores of the three top individuals.

The top Adams County pupil is Ronald Lawrence Bedford who placed sixth in the two-county area. He, Charles Calvin Biecker and Michael Edward Yanis made up Delone's "best three" team.

OTHER TOP SCORERS
The top three students from Bermudian Springs High School at York Springs were Robert Carl Stoner, Wayne Lavere Trostle and Sally Jane Black.

The top team of three from Gettysburg High was made up of Barton William Olinger, Gerald Lee Hess and Roger J. Eckler. Fairfield's top scorers were Stuart James Sites and Joseph Edward McCauslin.

The top scores at Littlestown High were made by Jacqueline Louise Morelock, Lawrence Edward Snyder and Grizelda Kay Hahn. care, the public assistance "crisis" and new proposals in public health.

Oscar Lingel, president of District V, presided and David Bouterse, executive director of PCA, conducted the discussions. Mrs. Mary Denham, legislative consultant, spoke on the budget and on Senate Bills 197 and 198 covering migrant workers, as well as House Bill 802 on delinquents. Harry Blank, director of the state office, spoke on legislation covering public assistance, surplus food and medical care. Bouterse explained House Bill 799 concerning the appropriation to assist counties in the work on the aging.

Other county people who attended this meeting were Mrs. Donald E. Myers, John B. Kenderhart, Roland Kime, S. M. Sollenberger, C. P. Keefe and the Rev. Lester J. Karschner.

Last year the score by Delone High School's team ranked 44th in Region 4 and the top individual scorer, Charles L. Hemler, received a bronze medal.

Dr. M. Scott Moorhead of the Gettysburg College mathematics department was in charge of the contest in Adams and Cumberland Counties.

livestock. Once such a proposed program involving controls was drafted, it would be submitted to affected producers. If approved by at least two-thirds those voting in a referendum, the program would go into full effect in 60 days unless rejected by either house within that period.

MONEY NOT OBLIGATED

It would be possible for the secretary of agriculture and farmers to draft a program providing for government payments to farmers as a means of supplementing their returns.

If Congress took no action and allowed the program to go into effect, the payments would become, in some degree, moral obligations on the Treasury. But the program as now envisioned would not obligate Congress to appropriate the money to make the payments.

In some cases, it might be possible for the secretary to make payments from funds the department had obtained under borrowing authority granted the Commodity Credit Corp., the price support agency.

WIDE RANGE OF TOOLS

Farmers would be authorized to use a wide-ranging kit of tools in the proposed programs. The tools would include marketing quotas—based on bushels, tons or other units of production, government-financed price supports, deficiency payments, incentive payments, government purchases of surpluses and diversion of them into by-product or other uses, and export subsidies.

The purpose of the individual commodity programs would be to balance production with demand so that there would be little or no surpluses to depress prices or require use of government supports.

TO SAVE MONEY

A perfect program would make production come out exactly even with demand. The resulting prices would be expected to give farmers what Kennedy has called a parity of income with others, taking labor, capital and management input into consideration.

In such a case, there would be no government expenditures on price supports, production payments or the like. However, to the extent production did exceed markets, there would be government acquisition of excess supplies under price supports or purchase arrangements.

Kennedy said this approach would save money for taxpayers because of the potential elimination of the costly surpluses. However, his proposal for broadened use of farm products in domestic and overseas relief and food for peace programs would increase

AUTHORED MANY BOOKS

The author of a long list of books, his most famous work is his monumental A Study of History, the eleventh volume of which was published recently. The volumes attracted attention from historians and other scholars, but Dr. Toynbee became a best-selling author with the general public with the publication in 1947 of C. D. Somervell's abridgement of Volumes I-VI. It was on the best-seller list for many weeks and also was a Book-of-the-Month Club selection. In 1957 Somervell's abridgement of Volumes VII-X was published.

At present Volume XII is being prepared for publication in May. Titled "Reconsiderations," it was written by Toynbee after he read and digested the criticisms of his work.

Dr. and Mrs. Toynbee are spending the first half of 1961 in North America. He is participating in a series of seminars on "general questions and ideas about history" in the Department of History of the University of Pennsylvania. He also has set up a lecture tour of various colleges, of which his appearance at Gettysburg is a part.

Dr. and Mrs. Toynbee plan to return to England in June.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

The agriculture business and management committee of the Adams County Extension Association will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the lower court room of the courthouse. Assistant County Farm Agent Duane G. Duncan announced today.

IN COLLEGE PLAY

A Gettysburg student, Miss Joan Lank, has a role in the major spring dramatic production, "An Inspector Calls," Friday and Saturday at Elizabethtown College. Miss Lank, daughter of Mrs. Blanche H. Lank, 227 N. Washington St., is a senior enrolled in the liberal arts curriculum at the college.

AMVETS ELECT

Officers for the Home Association for the Fairfield Amvets post 172 was conducted at a regular meeting Tuesday evening. The officers chosen included: President, James Herring; vice president, Paul McGlaughlin; secretary, William Izer, and treasurer, Fred Nagle.

4-H CLUB MEETS

The Adams County Dairy Calf Club met on Monday at the West St. Branch of the Gettysburg National Bank with President Robert Smith presiding. A show and tell was given by Judy Fissel on the triangle, breeding, feeding and management. John Naugle, assistant county agent, led a panel discussion. The panel consisted of Mrs. Paul Fissel, Mrs. Rebecca Guise, Adam Lobach and Wade H. Brown. There were 16 members and 16 parents in attendance. The next meeting of the club will be held on April 10 at the same place. At that time, Susan Fissel will give a show and tell and Robert Smith will give a talk on farm safety.

outlays. He did not say how much the increased food distribution programs would cost.

CITES BENEFITS

This proposed grant of authority to farmers to write their own ticket would cover the whole range of farm commodities, including those now under federal control programs, such as cotton, wheat, tobacco, rice and peanuts. The present programs would remain in effect until growers formulated new ones and they survived the possible congressional veto.

Kennedy said his farm proposals would bring benefits not only to agriculture.

"I am convinced," he said, "that the objectives of these programs will, when accomplished, provide for a reasonable balance between supply and demand."

MAYBE BY 1962

The message made no specific long range recommendations for the currently pressing surplus problems of wheat and feed grains, beyond an emergency program now before Congress.

White House aides said that, if Congress acted within a reasonable period on the Kennedy proposals, it would be possible to formulate new programs for the grains, submit them to farmers for approval and to Congress in time to cover 1962 crops.

It is too late now to develop a new program for wheat this year because much of the crop was sown last fall.

Girl Scout News

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop of the Methodist Church met Monday afternoon in the church. Nancy Harner, Kerry Jones and Regina Kuhn were chosen to represent the troop in the Girl Scout rally Saturday. Folders about bridge work were distributed and are supposed to be returned by March 27. Mrs. Paul Glenn was the leader present.

Eleven girls were present at the Tuesday meeting of Senior Girl Scout Troop 42 in the Girl Scout office. They decided to sell candy as their second money raising project of the year. The leaders in charge were Mrs. Ralph Bream and Mrs. Robert Moose.

JENNINGS RITES HELD

The funeral of Mrs. Theresa Emily Jennings, 82, formerly of Emmitsburg, who died Sunday in a Baltimore Nursing Home, was held Wednesday from the Wilson Funeral Home in Emmitsburg with a requiem mass at 9 o'clock at St. Anthony's Shrine Church with the Rev. Fr. Vincent Tomalski officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery. The pallbearers were J. Edward Seltzer, Harry Scott, Francis McGraw, Charles Geiselman, John Walter and Francis Hemler.

WRECK KNOTS FOUR TRACKS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Traffic was restored on Reading Co. tracks here Wednesday night after workmen cleared away much of the wreckage of a freight car derailment which temporarily tied up the railroad's four main tracks.

Seven runaway freight cars jumped the track causing damage estimated at $25,000. The company said the cars became uncoupled during switchin' operations.

The railroad said two trains between Allentown and Harrisburg were canceled but passengers were transported by company buses.

Train traffic was restored after five of the seven cars were removed, clearing two of the tracks.

The derailment included two box cars loaded with poultry feed and five loaded coal cars. Ties and rails were ripped up and bent for approximately 50 yards.

BOY MUST SELL OR SURRENDER

RIDGEWOOD, N.J. (AP)—An 8-year-old businessman has reached the point where he must either sell or surrender.

Donald Gilbert has 21 mice and it is apparent that he'll have more any day. He wrote this letter to Lederle Laboratories at Pearl River, N.Y.:

"I have been raising mice. Would you like to buy some mice? I'm saving money for my college education."

"P.S. Please answer fast because we just had 10 more babies today."

Lederle said they couldn't use his mice.

Asked Wednesday if Donald had a scientific interest in the mice, his mother sighed:

"Donald's only interest was in making a fast buck."

Proceeds from the ham supper to be given by the Bendersville PTA in the school cafeteria Saturday from 4 to 8 p.m. will be used to purchase additional reading and reference books for the school library, shade trees and graduation gifts for the three highest Sixth Graders. $80 has been earmarked for the purchase of books.

Other projects of the PTA include contributing to the Upper Adams Little League baseball fund and sponsoring a "Learn to swim" program in co-operation with the Adams County Chapter of The American Red Cross.

Mrs. Harry Lerew is chairman of the dinner committee.

SCOUTS TO BABY-SIT

Girl Scouts from Troop 31, Bendersville, will be available to baby-sit during the dinner.

Members of the PTA committees include: Mrs. John Baugher, hospitality committee; Wilson Wenk and C. L. Seeman, contributions and collecting food; Arthur Kuntz, Mrs. Jeanne Walsh and Dale Clark, ticket sales at the door; Robert Kime, clean up and transportation. Recruitment of workers for the kitchen and waiting on tables is in charge of Mrs. Robert Deatrick and Mrs. Dale Clark. Also assisting in this work are the home room representatives.

Clair R. Slaybough will be the auctioneer during the sale of unused food following the supper. Publicity is being handled by Paul J. Osborn, Charles Trump and art students at the school. V. F. Group, president of the PTA, is serving as general chairman.

Dean Stover is Renamed
Head Of C. E. Union: Dean Stover, of Littlestown, again was elected president of the Adams county Christian Endeavor Union at a regular meeting held in the Y.W.C.A. building last Friday evening. Mr. Stover first became president of the union in the fall of 1939 when he was elected to fill the unexpired term of Chester Byers.

Other officers elected at Friday's meeting to serve for one year beginning on June 1 are: First vice president, Charles Lott, Fairfield; second vice president, Vivian Brumgard, Littlestown; treasurer, Nettie Raffenberger, Biglerville; secretary, Ruth Schwartz, Mount Joy; pastoral counselors, the Rev. George E. Berkheimer, Ardenstville, and the Rev. A. W. Geigley, Fairfield.

British Claim Recapture Of African Port: Prime Minister Churchill's threat to tear Italy's African empire into "shreds and tatters" advanced nearer realization today with the announcement that imperial forces have recaptured Barbara, British Somaliland port on the Gulf of Aden, and seized Eritrean heights covering a long-besieged Cheran.

A communique issued by the middle east command at Cairo said the re-entry into Berbers, abandoned last August when the fascist occupied the British colony, was made yesterday in cooperation with the royal navy and air force.

David Morgan Wins County's Spelling Title: David Morgan, a student at the Franklin township consolidated school building at Cashtown, was chosen schoolboy spelling champion of Adams county in finals conducted Saturday afternoon at the Lincoln school building. The winner was the only pupil from Franklin township who qualified for the final contest.

'Tuesday Fair' Good News For Maroons Fans: A cold wave hit Pennsylvania today, ushered in by a March snow and sleet storm which lashed western Pennsylvania with the fury of a mid-winter blizzard. One man, lost in the blinding snow, died from exposure near Corry.

Swept along by a 45-mile gale, the storm coated northwestern Pennsylvania communities with four to five inches of snow and created hazardous driving conditions in most of the western half of the state.

Miss Ridinger Will Be Nurse At Indiantown: Miss Maybelle E. Ridinger, daughter of Mrs. Harry H. Ridinger, 247 West Middle Street, will take her oath this afternoon in the Red Cross building in Philadelphia and a United States Army nurse at Indiantown Gap. She will hold the rank of second lieutenant.

Miss Ridinger, who is a registered nurse in Pennsylvania, has been a Red Cross nurse since 1927 and a member of the First Reserve among the nurses since 1935. She passed her physical examination on November 1 and since that time has been subject to call for duty.

Maroons Leave For Game With Mahanoy City, Tuesday: Final arrangements for the inter-district basketball game to be played on the University of Pennsylvania Palestra court in Philadelphia Tuesday evening between Gettysburg High, District 3 champion, and Mahanoy City, District 11 titlist, were made at a meeting of district officials in Reading Sunday.

Coach George Forney and faculty Manager Guile W. Lefever represented Gettysburg at the meeting. The group agreed on Harry Dayhoff, Harrisburg, and Mike Lisetaki, Northampton, as the

Today's Talk
LEARN TO WALK AGAIN
The entire world populace sits, and drives, too much these days. If it walked around more, or didn't drive so fast, it would see more. And the more one sees, the more one understands and appreciates.

Learn to walk again! Get away from the crowded streets. Go to the quieter side streets, to the parks, or—if you can—to the woods where all is wild and natural. In winter, note the beauty of the snow-clad tree branches. In summer, listen for the rustle of the leaves.

Watch the agile little bodies of the squirrels as they scamper from branch to branch. Listen to the bird songs. And will anyone, who is human, ever tire of the peace and contentment that the running stream has to give.

Learn to walk—in reverent appreciation of all that the good God has put on this earth and taught to grow and run around.

If your nerves need resting, rest them in the open where the sun may touch your senses, and where every one of your faculties will be renewed under the blue sky.

And when you walk—think. Find in the bird, tree, or broken branch some lesson of truth, and take it home with you.

Then there are the great stones—playthings of gigantic movements of the earth's crust, thousands of years ago. What inspiration hides underneath their deep breasts. How solid they are.

If you would be strong, study the strength in Nature, and how it is preserved.

Don't always drive off in your car. Take walks—whether through the cold winds and snows of winter or under the summer sun—each has its beauties and its advantages.

Many of us find ourselves as we learn to walk.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "When's A Book Not A Book?"

YOUTH

With the lift of a song on his lips
And the glint of the sun in his eye,
Which seldom a frown will eclipse,
A roughish young fellow goes by.

You can tell by the tilt of his head,
By the charm of his voice and its tone,
By the grace and the spring of his tread,
That never a care has he known.

His shoulders are broad and full square,
His back is as straight as a pine;
The color's still fresh in his hair
Which has long ago faded from mine.

Here is youth clean and supple and strong;
Here is unburdened youth, passing by;
Oh, the years have been many and long
Since such a young fellow was I.

Yet time was I sang as does he,
And time was I laughed as I went;
Now age with its cares burdens me,
And the best of my courage is spent.

Brave boy, sing your songs while you may;
Too soon you shall look back as I,
When your temples are wearing the gray
And some roguish young fellow goes by.

GARY PLAYER LEADS IN PGA PRIZE MONEY

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Stocky Gary Player has been going along his unobtrusive way on the pro golf tour this year while Arnold Palmer has been taking the headlines, but the youthful South African has won more prize money than any of his rivals.

Player, shooting every round in each of the 10 tournaments to date, has piled up 19,285 in earnings to 17,425 for Palmer, who set a money-winning record of 75,262 in official PGA tournaments last year.

Player has won only one of the 10 tournaments, but he finished five times in the top five. Palmer won three of his nine tournaments and also finished in the top five in two others.

PALMER NOT ENTERED

Starting today over the 6,296-yard, par 36-35 — 71 Pasadena course here, Player can increase his margin over Palmer, who is not entered in this 26th renewal of the St. Petersburg Open.

The South African will have plenty of competition without Palmer. Big George Bayer, who won the event last year, is on hand to defend his laurels. Tommy Bolt, winner of the Pensacola Open last Sunday, is also among the galaxy of stars present.

Included are 14 of the top 20 money winners this year. The list of 148 pros and 11 amateurs, is dotted with such names as Doug Sanders, Ken Venturi, Bob Ross, Bob Goalby and Billy Casper.

One round of the 72-hole, 20,000 event will be played each day through Sunday. The field will be cut to the low 60 and ties Friday night after the second round.

Suit Is Filed For $925,000

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The operators of a New Jersey mink farm and three residents of New Jersey have filed damage suits totaling $925,000 for alleged injuries suffered from poisoned flounder.

Defendants in the U. S. District Court actions Tuesday are Daniel DiOrto, who headed the now defunct Universal Seafood, Inc., of Philadelphia; the Pioneer Salt Co. and I. E. du Pont de Nemours and Co.

The suits resulted from a March 1959, fish poisoning case in which a three-year-old boy died and some 200 persons made ill after eating flounder treated with sodium nitrate.

DiOrto was convicted of spraying the fish. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail, served 16 and is now under three years' probation.

The suits were filed by Atty. William M. Marutani on behalf of Michael and Rose Pindale, operators of the Pindale Fur Farm, Millville, N.J., who claim the fish killed 364 minks, and Rita DiPaolo, Maple Shade, N.J., and Alma and Otto Christensen, Ashland, N.J., who contend they suffered ill effects from eating the poisoned flounder.

The Pindales seek $255,000, Miss DiPaolo $300,000 and the Christensens $370,000.

LENTEN PRAYER FOR TODAY from Go With God
BY JIM BISHOP

"Prayer is not conquering God's reluctance, but taking hold of God's willingness," Phillips Brooks wrote. Brooks was born in Boston in 1835. He was educated at Harvard and the Episcopal Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Va., and was ordained to the ministry in 1859. After serving in pulpits in Philadelphia and Boston, he was consecrated bishop of Massachusetts. While rector in Philadelphia he wrote the verses of the popular Christmas hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem." The tune was composed by Lewis Redner, a real estate man who was Sunday School superintendent and organist at Rev. Brooks' church.

O LORD, by all Thy dealings with us, whether of joy or pain, of light or darkness, let us be brought to Thee. Let us value no treatment of Thy grace simply because it makes us happy or because it makes us sad, because it gives us or denies us what we want; but may all that Thou sendest us bring us to Thee; that knowing Thy perfectness we may be sure in every disappointment that Thou art still loving us, and in every darkness that Thou art still enlightening us, and in every enforced idleness Thou art still using us; yea, in every death Thou art giving us life, as in His death Thou didst give life to Thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen. —Phillips Brooks

Family Food Facts
THOMAS E. PIPER
Area Marketing Agent

A flexible shopping list and careful buying will help keep the food budget balanced this week-end, declares Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent. Weather conditions and changing seasonal production patterns will influence the food values offered in area foodmarkets.

Freezing temperatures in the muckland vegetable growing areas of Florida give promise of higher retail prices for green beans, sweet corn, and tender leafy salad items. Tomato prices are much higher as harvest of the winter crop nears an end. Small supplies of broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cucumbers, peppers and egg plant cause these items to be higher priced with the early shipments of asparagus.

LETTEUCE GOOD BUY

Iceberg lettuce remains an outstanding buy at the produce counter. The heads are firm, green and heavy for size, and quality is generally excellent. Other fair to good buys include celery, yellow onions, cabbage, carrots, green onions, cauliflower and radishes. Potatoes continue plentiful and shoppers may choose from fall-crop potatoes from Pennsylvania or Maine and new potatoes from Florida.

Grapefruit is the leading value at the fruit counter. This popular citrus item is in peak supply and prices are approaching the low point for the season. Fast transportation from growing areas means the consumer can enjoy prices are much higher. California Navel oranges and the Pineapple and Temple varieties are almost over for this year. Valencia oranges are coming on the market now but prices promise to remain firm.

STRAWBERRIES PLENTIFUL

Strawberries are more plentifully supplied and prices will depend upon the size and quality of the fruit. Stayman, Delicious, Rome and Winesap apples are available at unchanged prices. Bananas and Emperor grapes continue on the list of reasonably priced fruit. Imported melons, peaches and pineapples are available for those willing to pay the price.

Meat counters will offer the traditional corned beef for Saint Patrick's Day. Variable features may include fryers, turkey, chuck roasts of beef, smoked ham and lamb leg roasts. Steak prices continue quite favorable making this a good time to restock the home freezer for economical cook-outs in the months ahead.

Retail egg prices have been easing downward in recent weeks as supplies have been increasing. You will find the large size Grade A eggs the best value now if you make your comparison on a weight basis.

JFK WILL ASK OVERHAUL OF FOREIGN AID

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy plans to ask Congress soon for a massive overhaul of the U.S. foreign aid machinery aimed at gearing it more effectively to the needs of the 1960s. Informed sources said that under the new setup:

Various federal units now engaged in overseas assistance would be merged into a single aid organization, under foreign policy direction of the State Department.

LONG RANGE BASIS

Long term authority would be sought to administer aid on a long range basis, rather than on appropriations requested from Congress year by year.

U.S. help would be given on the basis of over-all economic programs for each country, rather than for unrelated projects, and aid-receiving nations would draw up plans for advancing their economies.

As in Kennedy's Latin-American aid program, American dollars would be aimed at supporting social progress and reform and avoiding making a few rich richer while the poor reap little benefit.

Congress' okay will be needed because legislation is required to perform the surgery Kennedy wants on the present system.

PROSPECTS CLOUDED

Prospects for assent from congressmen, who are never overjoyed by foreign aid pleas, are clouded further this year by the recession at home and the flow of U.S. gold abroad.

However, informants said the Kennedy administration plans for the next fiscal year to stick approximately with the foreign aid spending level proposed by the Eisenhower administration.

The merging of economic aid programs into a single agency would be designed to eliminate overlap and allow aid to be applied in a more effective package.

30 Tons Of TNT Blasted In Quarry

TYRONE, Pa. (AP)—A supervised dynamite explosion, sounding like the roar of Niagara Falls, blasted loose some 180,000 to 200,000 tons of limestone Wednesday at the Warner Co.'s quarry in nearby Union Furnace.

More than 30 tons of dynamite was used to set off the blast which sent up huge clouds of gray and orange smoke.

Warner officials said the blast took three months to prepare. About 15 men worked on the project.

As a precautionary move, 14 families living about a quarter-mile from the quarry were evacuated prior to the explosion. No damage was done to their homes. Plant Superintendent Frank Seiner said the blast was a "big success." He said the explosion produced about a year's supply of high-grade limestone to be used in highway construction and railroad beds.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., voted with the majority Tuesday as the Senate rejected an amendment by Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., to knock out of the depressed areas bill direct treasury financing for the $300 million loan fund.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., voted in favor of the amendment. It was defeated 49-45.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—James McGowan Jr., 75, of Beach Haven, N. J., former chairman of the board and president of the Campbell Soup Co., died Wednesday in University Hospital here.

McGowan, who started out with the firm in 1908 as a chemist, was named president in 1946 and served in this capacity until his retirement in 1953.

Adams-Franklin League Selects All-Star Cage Squad; Awards Trophies

Five Adams County lads were named to the 10-member All-Star team of the Adams-Franklin Basketball League by the coaches at a dinner-meeting of the league held Wednesday evening at Green-castle-Antrim High School.

There are two repeaters from last year, Bob Benner, Littlestown, senior, and Gary Stoops, Quincy, also a senior.

The squad includes the following:

Larry Bair, Littlestown, senior; Harry Dorsey, Scotland, junior; Thomas Hardy, Bermudian, junior; Rudy Haw-baker, Buchanan, junior; Daryl Henry, Greencastle, junior; William Hockenberry, Fannett-Metal, junior; Robert Hoffman, Buchanan, senior; William Inskip, Bermudian, senior; Richard Overcash, Greencastle, junior; Torrell Parker, Scotland, sophomore; Randall Rotz, St. Thomas, senior; Clarence Stotler, Greencastle, sophomore; William Ziegler, Greencastle, sophomore.

Scotland, Franklin Division and overall league champs, received trophies emblematic of those titles which were accepted by Marshall Frey, coach. The sportsmanship trophy was also presented to Scotland and Frey stated he was as happy to receive that trophy as the league championship award, paying tribute to Maurice Heckler for his work in building sports-manship at the Scotland school.

BOLTS GET TROPHY

Jack Bream, Littlestown coach, accepted the trophy for winning the Adams Division title.

Fifteen gold basketballs were awarded to Scotland for presentation to squad members while 13 silver balls were given to Littlestown.

The 1961-62 schedule was adopted and a discussion held on officials. Fifty-two representatives of the 10 schools attended the meeting.

BOLLING FACES BIGGEST TEST

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — By his own admission, Frank Bolling, who is expected to fill Red Schoendienst's big shoes at second base for the Milwaukee Braves, faces the biggest test of his major league career this season.

The Braves have such high regard for the Alabama fan who was willing to give up four players, including the popular Billy Bruton, to Detroit to land him. Manager Charlie Dressen thinks his team can win the pennant with Frank Bolling hopes Dressen is correct but he is taking nothing for granted.

"I've been so long with a team that never knew how it felt to battle for a pennant that I can't help but wonder how the pressure of a pennant fight will affect me," he said.

POOR SEASON

"I don't think it will bother my play but I really won't know until I'm in the thick of it."

One of the best second basemen in the game today, Bolling, 29, suffered through his poorest season in the majors last year since his rookie 1954 season.

There were extenuating circumstances, however. Tragedy struck him a double blow. His two-day-old son died only a few days after the start of the campaign. No sooner did he return to the club when his father-in-law died. In all, he missed nearly the entire first month of the season.

Bolling finished with a .254 batting average, 59 runs batted in and nine home runs. His .978 fielding percentage was his lowest since his first year with the Tigers. Only one other regular second baseman participated in fewer double plays.

AHL RACE FOR PLAYOFF POST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Cleveland Barons, like the Quebec Aces, still are far from dead in their ambitions to gain a playoff spot in the American Hockey League.

The Barons Wednesday night tallied three goals in the last five minutes, two in the final 59 seconds of play, and defeated the league-leading Springfield Indians 3-2. The game was at Cleveland.

Tonight at Quebec, the Aces take on the Rochester Americans in an all important game for the Canadian club. The Aces are in sixth place, only two points behind Cleveland, and Quebec has won six straight.

The regular league schedule doesn't end until March 26, and although Springfield has clinched first place the next five teams still have a chance to gain the playoffs. Four teams will qualify.

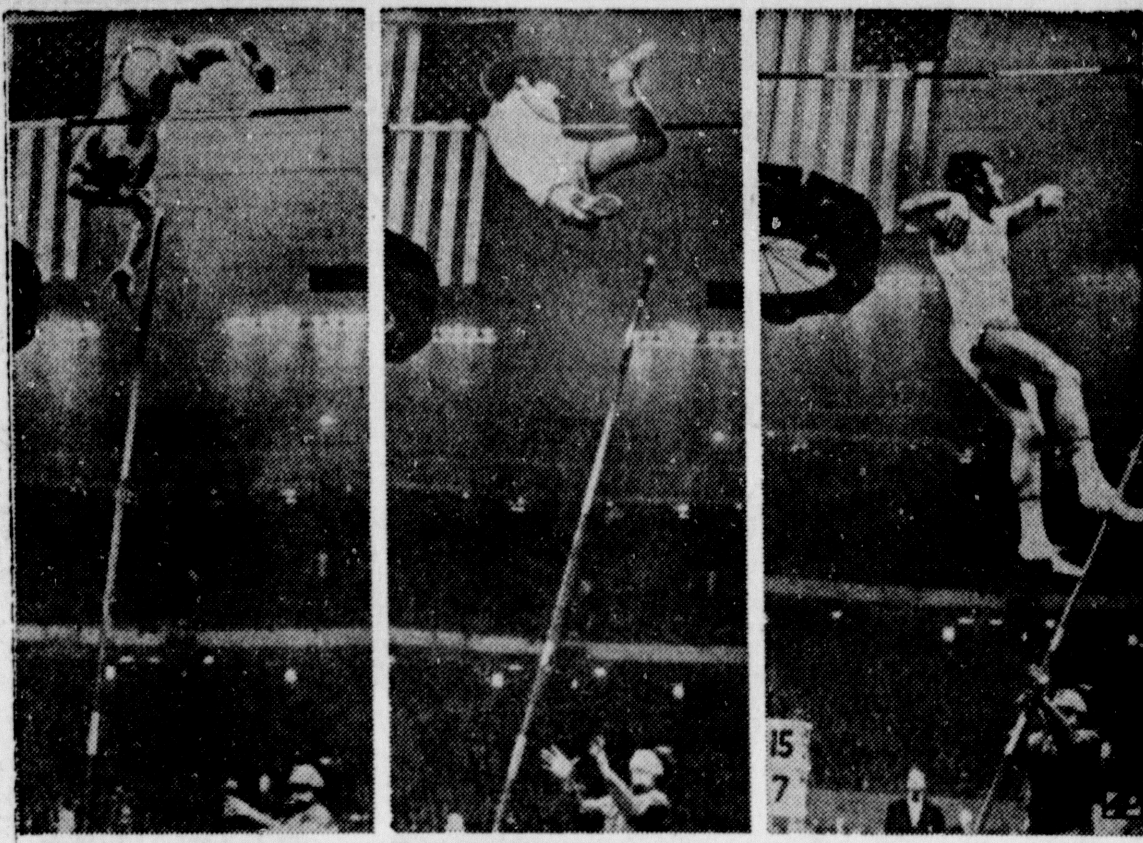

HERSHEY WINS

Hershey solidified its second place spot by defeating the last place Providence Reds 5-2 in the only other game Wednesday night. The Bears now have 70 points with five games to play; Buffalo, 67 points, six to play; Rochester 64 points, seven to go; Cleveland 62, five to play; and Quebec 60, seven to go.

Springfield goals by Bob McCord and Ken Schinkel in the first period stood up until the Barons took loose late in the third. Wayne Larkin got Cleveland's first tally at 14:54. Ron Attwell scored at 19:01, and Fred Glover won it at 19:51. Jim Mikol had assists on all three.

At Hershey, Jack McKenzie's 15th and 16th goals of the season sparked the Bears to their fourth straight win. Going into the final period leading 3-2, Hershey clinched things on goals by Hec Lalonde and Jack McIntyre.

PERRY WORKS ON SCREWBALL THIS SEASON

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Jim Perry, who won 18 games for the Cleveland Indians last season as the club's standout, hopes to do the screwball to his pitching repertoire.

"In 1959, I was just throwing hard to get the ball across," explains the 6-foot-4 hurler from Williamston, N.C., of his rookie year when he notched a 12-10 record.

"Last year I collected another pitch, the change-up, and that helped a lot. This year I'm going to work on a screwball after my arm gets in good shape. I need something to break away from left-handed hitters."

FEW MASTERED IT

Few right-handers have mastered the screwball in which wrist action puts spin on the ball. Marv Grissom, who helped the New York Giants win the 1954 world championship, was one of them and he says the pitch wasn't difficult for him.

Like all hurlers, Jim aims at a 20-game winning season and feels he'll have a better chance with a greater variety of pitches and also if he can field his position better.

SMALL BONUS

Jim received a small bonus—about $4,000—on signing with the Indians in 1956 while a couple of years later, his brother, Gaylord, received an estimated $80,000 to sign with the San Francisco Giants. This spring, Gaylord will work with the Tacoma club at the Giants new farm camp in Casa Grande, about 65 miles from the grade in the majors.

"He was lucky enough to get out of high school when teams were offering the big bonuses," Jim explains. "I'm happy for him that he got it and know he'll work to make good. When I signed, players who collected the big bonuses had to be kept in the majors two seasons. If I had done that, I might not be up here now."

M'COVEY KEY TO SF GIANTS

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ

Associated Press Sports Writer

If the San Francisco Giants are to be in contention for the National League pennant this season, it is generally agreed that Willie McCovey must make a comeback and regain his baseball batting eye.

One of new manager Alvin Dark's tasks is to get the lanky first baseman back on the beam in 1961 after McCovey's failure a year ago. From the looks of things thus far, the project may become a success, after all.

McCovey homered early in the game against the Chicago Cubs Wednesday and then started the Giants' rally in the ninth inning with a single, scoring the winning run. San Francisco overcame a 8-1 deficit and edged the Cubs 10-9.

In other games Wednesday, the Chicago White Sox edged Cincinnati 8-7, Washington turned back Baltimore 6-4, Detroit topped St. Louis 6-3, Milwaukee shaded the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3 in 11 innings, Pittsburgh whipped Minnesota 10-4, New York blanked Philadelphia 2-0 and Boston beat Cleveland 14-6.

Earl Torgerson's bases-filled double capped a six-run ninth inning rally that gave the White Sox their uphill victory over the Reds.

The Pirates erupted for nine runs in the sixth inning against the Twins for their fifth win in six starts. Bob Friend worked five innings for Pittsburgh, giving up one run and four hits. The Yanks snapped a four-game losing skein at the expense of the Phils. Art Ditmar and Jim Coates combined for the five-hit shutout while Mickey Mantle homered for New York.

The Red Sox tagged Indian pitching for 10 runs in the first inning and coasted to victory. Willie Kirkland belted a grand slam home run for the Tribe.

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP) — Eastern Basketball League officials have agreed that if Allentown and Baltimore finish in a first-place tie in regular season play, the two teams will meet in a one-game playoff April 5 for the top spot.

The officials also decided Wednesday that the semifinal playoffs should be decided in one game. The first-place team will play the fourth-place team and the second-place team will play the third-place team. The winners will meet in a best-of-three series for the championship.

Herr Painting Pick For March

The work of James H. Herr, Gettysburg R. 3, has been selected as March Painting of the Month, Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, said Tuesday.

The work, called "Motif Chicago," features a vase of flowers in bright golds and oranges in a moss green vase.

Herr, an amateur in art, is currently attending an assignment at Chaney Junior College, Pippa Passes, Ky., as English and dramatics professor.

CHICAGO 5 IN PLAYOFF TILT

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — The University of Chicago will take a 19-3 record against Southeast Missouri of Cape Girardeau (23-2) tonight in a main attraction of the quarter-finals of the NCAA college division basketball tournament.

The Maroons, who left the Big Ten 15 years ago because of athletic deficiency, this year climaxed their switch from a major to a minor collegiate sports level by producing their best basketball season since 1909.

In another night game, Austin Peay of Clarksville, Tenn. (22-8) will face Mount St. Mary's, Emmitsburg, Md., (25-3).

Two afternoon games start off the fifth annual tourney in Roberts Municipal Stadium. South Dakota (19-5) takes on California of Santa Barbara (20-7) in the opener and Williams College of Williamstown, Mass., (22-2) meets Wittenberg, Springfield, Ohio (22-4).

The winners advance to Friday night's semifinals. The championship and third-place games will be Saturday night.

The Southeast Indians and Wittenberg Tigers are considered the top favorites.

LAKERS JOLT PISTONS AGAIN

HOFFA IS NOT EXPECTED TO STAND TRIAL

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Government attempts to bring James R. Hoffa to trial on a 12-count federal mail fraud indictment apparently have been stalled, at least until next fall.

Some who attended this week's three-day hearing on defense motions for dismissal predicted that the president of the Teamsters Union will never face trial in the case.

U.S. District Judge Joseph P. Lieb turned down a government plea at the close of the hearing Wednesday which would have set a trial date for May 15.

"I'm not going to do that at all," Lieb told James T. Dowd of Washington, a Justice Department attorney. "I'm going to consider these briefs and when that is done, we'll go on."

ASKS WRITTEN BRIEFS

He gave both sides until May 1 to submit written briefs. An additional seven days was allowed for counsel to reply to each other's briefs.

Court attendants and attorneys predicted Lieb would need another 30 days to read and consider the testimony before ruling on the dismissal motions and those calling for separate trials, a change of venue and a bill of particulars on the government's case.

Both sides indicated during the hearing that if any of the judge's rulings were against them, the decisions would be appealed. That could put the case in mothballs for months.

Hoffa, Henry Lower, a former Teamsters local officer at Detroit, and Robert E. McCarthy, a banker, were indicted in December. The grand jury charged them with using the mails and interstate telephone and telegraph service in an illegal land development scheme. The three are free on bond.

Dear Sir:
I write from the Sanctuary, a refuge for homeless dogs upon a hill-farm in southern Indiana. I am the staff — the one fighting woman who is trying to hold the place together. In times past, those who love dogs have been good to us and so we ask again, bearing in mind our debt in gratitude.

We need food (of any sort), old towels, blankets or other pieces. Just about anything can find application here.

BERMUDIAN SCHOOL NEWS

The Bermudian Springs chapter of the Future Farmers of America will place safety exhibits in various store windows in its area in the interest of farm family safety, it was announced today by chapter officials.

The FFA boys also are preparing speeches for the public speaking contest to be held at Gettysburg High School April 19. The chapter members also are preparing to sell onion sets, starting in mid-April. Persons may order supplies from any member of the chapter.

A delegation from the Bermudian Springs chapter went to Chambersburg for an area FFA meeting. The group included Robert Smith, Paul McCauslin, Vincent Warren, James Smith, Emory Golden and their teacher, Carroll C. Slothour.

From Paris, Illinois, to Paris, France, from Sweden to Syria, Christians find hope and joy in Easter. They also find different ways to celebrate the holiday.

In France and some other European countries, church bells do not ring from Good Friday to Easter. According to a legend uncovered by Mrs. Francine Klagsbrun, religion editor of the World Book Encyclopedia, the bells fly to Rome. On their way back for Easter, they drop the eggs which children find.

Germans color eggs green on Maundy Thursday and carry them around all day for good luck. The Shrove Tuesday festival is called Fastnacht, or fast night, in Germany and Switzerland.

The English are especially careful to wear new clothes, because an old rhyme warns, "At Easter let your clothes be new, or else be sure you will rue." The custom of wearing new clothes comes from the early days of Christianity, when the newly-baptized persons were dressed in white linen garments. Easter has always been a favorite time for baptism.

Religious processions mark Good Friday in Spain. Sometimes the processions include pasos, or wooden figures mounted on platforms which represent scenes from the last week in Christ's life. Easter Day is celebrated with dancing and bullfights.

In the United States, New York City's Easter parade and the White House egg-rolling contest are well-known customs. In Bethlehem, Pa., the trombone choir of the Moravian Church awakens the people early on Easter morning, and they sing and pray as they wait for the dawn. Outdoor sunrise services are observed in many places, such as the Hollywood Bowl in California and the Hawaiian Punch Bowl, overlooking Honolulu.

Trash Collectors Strike; Are Fired

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Upper Darby has fired 40 trash collectors who went on strike last Friday in a pay dispute.

The township recently granted the trashmen at $200 annual pay increase. The trashmen, however, demanded $500, the amount given policemen.

James Robbins, chairman of the township health committee, said Wednesday, collections will be resumed with eight regular trashmen who stayed on the job, and 30 others to be hired.

Gambler Is Guilty On Tax Evasion

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A federal jury Wednesday found Abraham Minkler guilty of failing to pay excise taxes on gambling bets.

Judge C. William Kraft earlier ordered John A. Witkowski, a co-defendant, acquitted of the charges. He also dropped two of seven counts in the indictment against Minkler.

Witkowski and Minkler, both of Reading, were charged with failing to pay $60,445 in taxes on $604,238 accepted in numbers bets between September 1950 and March 1960.

Kraft said the government had failed to support its charges against Witkowski and the two counts against Minkler. No date was set for sentencing.

Minkler's lawyer said he would file a motion for a new trial.

NEW SCHOOL TO BE READY FOR USE IN SEPT.

The progress report of the building committee chairman, Lloyd E. Crouse, to the directors of the Littlestown Joint School System, at the March meeting of the board on Tuesday evening at the high school, revealed that the new junior-senior high school will be ready for occupancy when the 1961 school term begins in September.

The report of Supervising Principal Paul E. King noted that 114 days were taught to date in the current term, with the close of February. Activities since the last meeting included a Buddy Deane hop by the Varsity L Club; the PTA meeting with discussion on organization and operation of kindergarten; preschool registration.

Rolling Acres when 93 pupils were enrolled for First Grade in September; visit of social security representative to explain the program to seniors; attendance at coaches' clinic in Atlantic City by Ronald Lawhead; and a dial telephone demonstration in both high school and elementary school.

It was also noted that Littlestown won the Adams County division of the Adams-Franklin League basketball and participated in District 3, Class C, playoffs at Carlisle and Gettysburg College. Baseball practice began on March 14 with Donald C. Feeser as coach. Department of Health inspections were conducted, in the building on March 6 and the report is on file in the principal's office.

An explosion occurred in the boiler room on February 9 at 6:15 a.m. causing considerable smoke damage; insurance covered the painting and repairing of the room and other damage.

CALNDAR CHANGED

There were several revisions on the school calendars due to the loss of four days when there were heavy snows. The schools will be closed Good Friday, March 31, and Memorial Day, May 30. The term will end June 2. Dates for baccalaureate and commencement will remain the same. The Littlestown Ministerium requested the use of one wing of the Jolling Acres Elementary School for Daily Vacation Bible School June 5 to 16.

Principal King also presented the report of the school nurse, Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, which revealed that there were 14 home calls during the month, 153 first aid treatments in school, four pupils required further treatment at the doctor's office and three were referred to the hospital for

WOMAN MAY BE NAMED TO HIGH COURT

HARRISBURG (AP) — Timing will be an important factor in the selection of a successor to Chief Justice Charles Alvin Jones if he goes through with his announced intention to resign from the State Supreme Court.

Jones, a 72-year-old Democrat, announced Wednesday his plan to retire in June because of failing eyesight. He said he would stay on longer, if necessary, to clear up court business.

Gov. Lawrence acknowledged at his weekly news conference a short time later that he had received Jones' resignation but declined comment beyond the fact he had no replacement in mind.

According to the Constitution an election to replace Jones would be held at the Nov. 7 election provided he resigned by Aug. 7. If he resigns Aug. 8 or after, no successor could be elected until November 1962.

MAY NAME WOMAN

Lawrence would be able to make interim appointments to serve until January 1962 or January 1963, depending whether the election is held this year or next.

The governor, a Democrat, would be expected to name a member of his party to fill the vacancy temporarily. That appointment would have an edge when it comes time to fill the post for a full 21-year term.

The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette said in today's edition that there is speculation Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern will be appointed to fill any vacancy.

Miss Alpern, a Democrat, is a former Pittsburgh city solicitor and a former judge in Allegheny County.

in charge at the monthly meeting of the Littlestown Borough School Board on Tuesday evening after the joint session. The board discussed the situation of approximately $13,000 overdue taxes and this amount is almost equally divided between overdue real estate and per capita taxes. The board decided to advise Tax Collector Leroy W. Bish to make a special effort to collect the taxes. Bills were ordered paid by the board. Present for the meeting, in addition to President Bankert, were Richard A. Maitland, Lloyd E. Crouse, Henry E. Waltman and Secretary Wilbur E. Mackley. The next meeting of the board will be held April 11.

Since moving from Philadelphia in 1955, the Kansas City Athletics have never been out of the American League's second division. They've finished sixth once, eighth twice and seventh three times.

A. L. BIRTHDAY BANQUET HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

The annual birthday banquet program of Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion was held Tuesday evening in the Kingsdale Fire Company hall, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. Approximately 100 Legionnaires, auxiliary members and guests were in attendance.

Daniel Shaub, department adjutant, was guest speaker. His message explained the functions of the American Legion from the time of its inception in 1919 in Paris, France, to the present, the ultimate goal of the Legion, which is 100 per cent Americanism and he also touched on the organization's accomplishments through rehabilitation, orphan's schools and similar projects.

Beaven F. Hanlon, commander of the post, was toastmaster and introduced the speaker as well as the following other guests: Perry House, Biglerville, commander of the 22nd District; Dale Clark, Biglerville, district adjutant. Past commanders of the post who were present and were introduced were Donald L. Beford, Robert W. Gouker, James W. Fager, Elmer W. M. Duttrera, Ralph R. Ruggles, William J. Yingling and Lawrence T. Crouse. Also present were the unit's officers, Lloyd T. Bortner, vice commander; Stewart N. Long, adjutant; Norman R. Sentz, service officer; Earl L. Stites, finance officer; and James W. Fager, chaplain; also Mrs. James W. Fager, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

A gift was presented to the speaker, Adjutant Shaub, by Robert Gouker, on behalf of the post and auxiliary. A check for $50 was also presented to the local commander by the auxiliary, to be used as the unit sees fit.

The group joined in "America" and the pledge of allegiance and Chaplain Fager offered the invocation prior to the roast chicken banquet served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Kingsdale Fire Company. Following the meal there was entertainment by Justin Swain, Walkersville, Md., a hypnotist. Table centerpieces were presented to Mrs. Lloyd T. Bortner, Mrs. Ivan D. Rickrode, Mrs. Viola Schneider, Mrs. Norman Sentz, Miss Teresa Rang, Mrs. Thomas C. McSherry, Mrs. Stew-

SAYS 2-MAN PATROLS BEST ON HIGHWAYS

HARRISBURG (AP)—State Police Commissioner Frank G. McCartney said today he would like to have enough troopers for two-man highway patrols at all times.

"But," he told The Associated Press, "the reason we don't have two-man patrols at all times is that we don't have the manpower."

The question of state police patrols came up at Gov. Lawrence's news conference Wednesday. The governor was asked if he thought the patrols should always travel with two troopers, since within the past six months two troopers—patrolling alone in each case—were shot down by criminals they apprehended on the highway.

FOLLOW REGULATIONS
"I would be guided by whatever McCartney says," the governor declared. "I am not a police specialist; he is."

Under present regulations all patrols have two men between the hours of midnight and 8 a.m. Individual troop commanders have authority to assign two-man patrols after dark, if they choose to do so.

McCartney said most of the troops do not assign two-man patrols, except where required by regulations.

LIMITED TO 1,900
However, he added that two-man patrols are an "extremely effective deterrent to violence."

The present state police force is limited by law to 1,900 men of which the highway patrols are only part. Gov. Lawrence's proposed budget calls for an increase in the force by 100 men.

The state police are responsible for patrolling the 42,000 miles of state highway.

Saturday in St. Aloysius Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Crouse, Littlestown R. 1, have returned from a trip to South America. Crouse, a local Rotarian, attended a Rotary Club meeting in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. In Peru, Mr. and Mrs. Crouse visited one of the Latin American school teachers who spent several days in Littlestown last summer as guests of the local Rotary and Lions Clubs.

L-Cpl. and Mrs. Ned A. Little and son, Ned Jr., Havelock, N. C., are spending 10 days visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Little, and family, E. King St., and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rang, and family, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. David Little and children, Kay, Patty, Jon and Jay, entertained at a family dinner on Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Hawk, Silver Run; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Little and son, Ronald, near New Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bankert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Little, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Little, Carroll K. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Frock and son, Myron, Mrs. Eva Frock, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Little and daughter, Robin, all of or near Westminster, and L-Cpl. and Mrs. Ned Little and Ned Jr.

"Quite A Feeling" Says Father Of Phila. Quads

Orrtanna

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "A gift of God," exclaimed William W. Cutaiar III after his young wife gave birth to quadruplet girls Wednesday night.

"It's quite a feeling," he said. "I'm more or less starting to get back to reality. But tell me, what do you do with four at once. I still don't know. I can't imagine what it will be like taking care of four at once."

"Do you have children? Well, four times one. Let's put it that way. But just how the heck we didn't slip a boy in there I don't know."

BOYS' NAMES READY
"She (the mother) was really excited and trying to think of names. 'What will I name them?' she kept repeating, and all this and that. She's just so happy. I'll let her name them."

"We thought they were going to be boys, so we picked out names after the disciples — Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Now we'll have to change all that."

As for the babies and their mother, 24, a supervisor at Delaware County Hospital in Upper Darby gave this report: "The mother is doing well. The babies are holding their own. We haven't weighed them yet but I estimate they weigh from 2½ to 3 pounds. They are in satisfactory condition. They have been placed in isolettes (similar to incubators) because they need all the oxygen they can get."

NOT SURPRISED
Cutaiar, 26, who helps his father operate a transportation firm in Kennett Square, Pa., said he and his wife had been told about four weeks ago to expect quadruplets.

The Cutaiars moved from their three-bedroom home in nearby Paoli into his parents' five-bedroom home in suburban Devon WASHINGTON (AP) — Both of Pennsylvania's senators voted with the majority Wednesday in rejecting a substitute for the depressed areas bill offered by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill. The vote was 66-27 against the bill.

When the original 394 million bill passed 63-27 later, both Sens. Joseph S. Clark, D, and Hugh Scott, R, voted with the majority.

Nature is slow and painstaking... takes twenty years to completely develop a pair of feet... the only feet a child will ever have. Knowing the lifelong burden they must bear, the soft cartilage that are the feet at birth, require properly designed and fitted shoes.

Here is reason enough to recommend Buntees... for Buntees allow non-restricting freedom of foot action... follow (never force) the natural walking action of the foot... never try to supplant the functions of the foot with stiff, binding soles and uppers. CHURCHWOMEN PLAN ANNUAL EASTER MART

The Ladies' Aid Society of Redeemer's United Church of Christ made plans for the annual Easter market at the March meeting held Tuesday evening in the church social hall. The market will be held Saturday, April 1, at 9 a.m. in the engine house.

Mrs. Glenn S. Kaufman Jr. was in charge of the program which included the Apostle's Creed in unison; hymn, "In the Garden"; scripture, Mrs. Clement A. Sneeringer; prayer, Mrs. Kaufman; readings, Mrs. Anna B. Leach and Mrs. Donald C. Arbogast; poem, Mrs. Kaufman, and group hymn. The business was in charge of the president, Mrs. John D. Basehoar. The reports of Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh, secretary, and Mrs. Paul F. Crabbs, treasurer, were given. The guess package, contributed by Miss Blanche Troxell, was won by Mrs. Kaufman. Palms were ordered for the church for Palm Sunday and members were requested to bring their Easter plants to decorate the church for the Easter season. The session closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison and refreshments were served by Mrs. Kaufman, Mrs. Sneeringer and Mrs. William Wherley. The hostesses for the next meeting on Tuesday, April 11, at the church will be Mrs. Lloyd E. Crouse, Mrs. Carroll Dodder and Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert.

CLASS MEETING HELD

Mrs. Paul F. Boller Jr., E. King St., was hostess to the Ever-Willow Class of St. John's Lutheran Church on Tuesday evening. The program consisted of a group hymn; scripture, Mrs. Edgar E. Yealy; readings, Mrs. Boller, Mrs. John Morehead, Mrs. Fred Leister and Mrs. Dale W. Starry. Cards were distributed for the parcel post sale to be featured at the mother and daughter banquet in May. Committees for the mother-daughter affair include: Program, Mrs. Boller, Mrs. Leister and Mrs. Kenneth Shandbrook; table decoration, Mrs. Paul E. Renner and Mrs. Starry; tickets, Mrs. Albert Starner and Mrs. Kenneth Bortner. The class will be in charge of a speaker for the Adult Department of the Sunday School on Mother's Day, Mrs. Fred W. King and Mrs. Yealy were appointed to secure the speaker. Group games were enjoyed during the social hour and refreshments were served by Mrs. Boller. A hat social will be held in connection with the next meeting on Tuesday, April 11, when Mrs. Kenneth Bortner will be hostess.

PLAN DINNER MAY 9

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist Church held the March gathering on Tuesday evening at the church. Mrs. Mary Miller conducted devotions, assisted by Mrs. Esther Bechtel and Mrs. Lois Sells. The birthdays of Mrs. Bertha Babylon, Mrs. Nancy Bucke, Mrs. Ruth Smith and Mrs. Marion Crist. The WSCS is selling candy and cards for the benefit of the treasury. Tuesday, May 9, was set as the tentative date for the annual mother and daughter dinner program. Day-Apart will be held in New Oxford on Wednesday, March 22 and those planning to attend should contact the president, Mrs. Fay Daum, for additional information. A white elephant party was enjoyed during the social hour, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Grace Harper, Mrs. Mildred Kerns, Mrs. Maggie Cutsall and Mrs. Catherine Mayers.

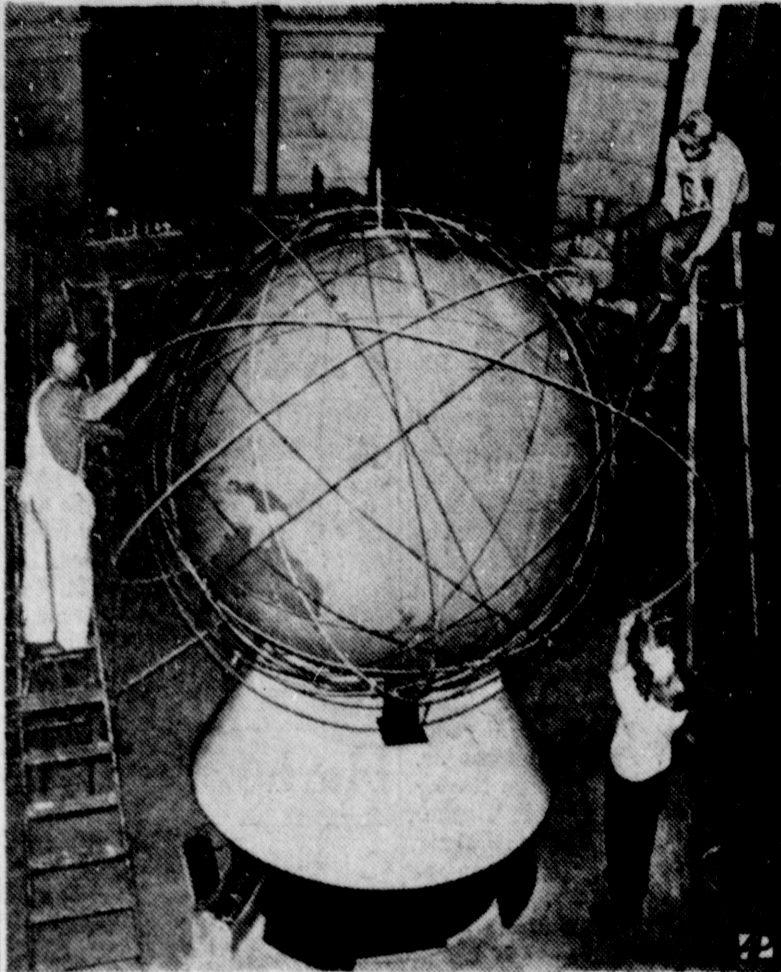

The WSCS will meet again on Tuesday, April 11, at the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Nancy Bucke, Mrs. Joan Feaser, Mrs. Marion Crist and Mrs. Helen Arter.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

The finance committee of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the committee chairman, Mrs. Alvin J. Groft, W. King St. In addition to Mrs. Groft the committee includes Mrs. John Brodie, Mrs. Beaven F. Hanlon, Mrs. George E. Hornberger, Mrs. Edward H. Leister and Mrs. Robert J. Stonesifer.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Clouser and Mrs. Alvin J. Groft, near town, visited recently with Mrs. J. I. Hummer, wife of a former pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, who is a patient at the Reading Hospital since February.

MOTHER KILLS SON; SUICIDES

TAMAQUA, Pa. (AP)—A mother who neighbors described as a cheerful housewife fatally shot her seven-year-old son Wednesday and then killed herself, police said.

Police found the body of the boy, Lehman Norcross Jr., seated at a table in the basement kitchen of his home. His mother, Helen Norcross, 41, was lying dead on the floor of an adjacent room, a 410-gauge shotgun at her side.

Mrs. Norcross' husband, who was working at the Bethlehem steel plant in Bethlehem at the time of the shooting, said she had been acting strangely the past few weeks. He added that he did not know why.

Police said Mrs. Norcross had tried to kill herself twice before, once with a shotgun and once by drinking iodine.

Neighbors said Mrs. Norcross never indicated she was troubled. They said only last Monday she washed the windows of the house.

Police are continuing their investigation.

KITCHENS NOW HAVE THAT OLD FASHION LOOK

By VIVIAN BROWN The Associated Press

The old-fashioned look in kitchens is making a comeback. Kitchen appliances are up-to-date to be sure and new colors are vivid, but the traditional look is the aim of many homemakers who are residing or moving into new homes.

Dull-finished wooden cabinets have been popular for a few years and now there is a growing trend to the hand-rubbed hand-crafted look in cabinets. Colorful effects are achieved with tiles, culinary reproductions of antique cookie ware, old wall art such as cutters. The sterile looking kitchen is definitely passed.

Exotic colors in ceramic tile are making decoration news. Violet, regal blue, tangerine are some of the new hues that are providing inspiration in color schemes. There are new additions in the pink and red group—cherry and vermillion.

STAR DESIGN

Decorated tiles include star designs with insets suggesting jewels, popular where an Oriental feeling is desired. There is also a tiled tile with a concave center that creates a quilted effect on the wall. Sheets of these tiles may be installed with adhesive or mortar. Tiles are being combined with glass for interesting effects with light.

Many of the hand-rubbed cabinets are made of oak or are veneered woods. The handcrafted look is accomplished with a desired stain, sanding and rubbing. Its patina grows with time as it is polished.

The trend to the old-fashioned look in cabinets has brought the hand-rubbed sawbuck table back to many kitchens. These tables are ideal for many occasions, luncheon and dinner with the children, the late supper for the man of the house. When the family cannot eat together the dining room doesn't need to be disturbed.

HOMEY LOOK

A homey look is what everyone desires in the kitchen. It gives the cook a desire to spend more time there. The combinations of the modern effects in colorful accessories and vivid wall tiles doesn't detract from the look, but rather enhances it. The old-fashioned kitchen was a work of art but frequently it was drab.

Modern techniques blending the old and new can produce some terrific effects.

Lighter woods are combined with bayberry green, mist and willow green, sandalwood and spice tiles.

Darker woods are enriched by some of the brilliant tiles such as tangerine.

Homemakers who have an odd piece of equipment, such as a white washing machine, with new colored appliances have in many instances found appliance people in their community who make a specialty of spraying the old equipment to match the new color scheme. These are hard-to-tell from the rest of the equipment, if the job is done properly.

SONYA HAGNA IS DILLY BEAN QUEEN AT 26

By MARY CAMPBELL
The Associated Press

Sonya Hagna substituted a dilly of a bean for a better mousetrap and now, true to the proverb, the world is beating its path to her door.

In 1958 Sonya was leading "a tiring life" as a third grade teacher in Hommonston, N. J. Today she's Dilly Bean queen, president at 26 of a corporation that sells 2,000 jars of Dilly Beans a day.

Sonya's bean—steeped in vinegar, water, garlic and spices—is turning up on relish trays; in tuna fish and egg salad; beef hamburgers, hot dogs and beef stroganoff; chopped up in scrambled eggs ("That doesn't sound too good to me," she says); in the hands of children postponing bedtime and of women who've eaten the last dill pickle in the house.

GIVES BEAN TO DOG
In New York you can order a dillini—the dilly bean replaces both the olive and the swizzle stick in the martini—in 50 or 60 restaurants. Also in New York, one man rewards his dog by slipping a Dilly Bean into the pooch's antiseptic inside-the-apartment gnawing bone.

Sonya first cooked up the pickling mix, using her mother's carefully guarded recipe, one fall afternoon in 1958 while her roommate, Jacqueline Park, and 15 girls from Jackie's English class ("They came to get on the good side of teacher") snapped two bushels of beans.

When they finished work that evening, Sonya had 36 jars of Dilly Beans and Jackie as a partner.

TRIPS TO MARKET
Then began a series of pre-dawn trips to the wholesale food market in Philadelphia. Sonya says, "We decided we needed a truck and we bought a 1950 model that looked more like a hearse. Everybody was convinced that two schoolteachers carrying bushel baskets of beans at 5 a.m. out of that truck had lost their minds."

"But when they saw us unloading a 500-pound vinegar barrel, they were even more shocked."

The landlord was afraid the barrel would ruin his floor; the delicatessen owner downstairs was sure vinegar would leak through his ceiling; the woman in the next apartment complained about the smell.

MISSING BARREL
One weekend the roommates went out of town. When they returned, the vinegar barrel was gone.

Whoever took it—the landlord has always been suspected—failed to stop the lady brine boilers. They were only "stuck without vinegar for a couple of days" before they bought another barrel.

By the end of the first school semester, the girls were not only producing Dilly Beans, but selling and delivering them to specialty grocers in New York.

UPWARD HO!
They also felt it was time to make a choice—the classroom or the Dilly Bean. The decision proved an easy one. They loaded all their fragrant belongings and 100 cases of Dilly Beans into their sagging truck and left ("Most people were relieved") for Washington, D. C.

Truck repairs on the way and red tape on arrival proved minor irritations as the Dilly Bean suddenly climbed onto the bathtub onto the assembly line. In rapid a Baltimore firm contracted to process, pack and distribute the beans; expansion of sales to 20 cities; an east coast advertising campaign.

An astrologer, learning that Sonya and Jackie were born the same day—November 13, 1934—was so intrigued she offered them a free reading of the future.

That's the only bad part about an otherwise satisfying business, Sonya says.

They haven't had time to take her up on it.

Stamp News

By SYD KRONISH

Gibraltar long a symbol of British strength guarding the Mediterranean, has issued a new set of 13 stamps showing local scenes and bearing a portrait of Queen Elizabeth II.

The scenes depicted are: Moorish Castle, St. George's Hall, The Keys, Rock By Moonlight, Catalan Bay, Location Map, Air Terminal, American War Memorial, Rock Ape, Barbary Partridge, Blue Rock Thrush, three flower stamps and the Rock and Badge of the Gibraltar Regiment.

The information was released by the British Crown Agents.

Each year Ghana issues stamps honoring different United Nations institutions. This year, Human Rights Day was singled out for such recognition. The set will consist of three stamps showing the flame symbolizing Human Rights. The previous Ghana issues honoring the United Nations were U. N. Day in 1958 and the U. N. Trusteeship Council in 1959.

Gospel Quintette Here Sunday

The Eppeley Sisters Gospel Quintette of York will appear at the Memorial Evangelical United Brethren Church here Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The five sisters, Sara, Mary, Verna, Lorraine and Pauline, render a spiritual program featuring vocal quintettes, soprano and alto solos, artistic piano playing and numbers on the following musical instruments: Vibra-harp, violin, electric Hawaiian guitar, saxophone, accordions, cathedral chimes, musical saw and organ. The five sisters have appeared in churches in 48 states, Canada, Mexico, British Isles, South America and Europe. The public is invited to attend.

Tornado On The Way

This tornado smashed into the Woodland community near Clarksville, Ark., injuring 12 persons. The picture, which shows Clarksville homes in the foreground, was taken by Edward H. Patterson of Clarksville. Clarksville itself was not hit but a number of houses in neighboring communities were shattered. (AP Wirephoto) ing the 15th anniversary of the United Nations. The 10 mills violet depicts Abbas El Sheikh. The 35 mills rose red illustrates Mohamed Badr Bahgat.

From behind the Iron Curtain in Hungary comes word that the final values of its portrait set have been issued. Honored and depicted on the postal issues are Donat Banki, Hungarian scientist and inventor; Abraham Geza Pattantyus, Hungarian scientist; Ignace Semmelweis, Hungarian doctor; Joliot Curie, internationally famous scientist. Each stamp bears the same denomination, 60 fillers.

NEW CYCLE
Luxembourg's 1960 Caritas (Charity) set will inaugurate a new cycle of stamps in this famed series. It will depict the children of the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Luxembourg. The first set in the series will show Princess Marie-Astrid, born at the castle of Betzdorf. The stamps are 30 centimes plus 10 light blue and sepia; 1 franc plus 25 c rose and sepia; 1.50 fr. plus 25 c green and sepia; 2.50 fr. plus 50 c yellow and sepia; 5 franc plus 50 c light violet and sepia; 8.50 fr plus 4.60 fr olive green and sepia. The additional values will go to funds of charitable institutions in Luxembourg.

Two simultaneous issues by Israel honor Henrietta Szold, founder of the women's Zionist Organization, Hadassah, and the 25th Zionist Congress.

The Szold stamp which portrays the first president of Hadassah also shows the Hadassah Medical Center in the background. This stamp was issued on December 14—the centenary of her birth.

Born in Baltimore, Miss Szold left the United States in 1920 to take up residence in Israel and remained there until her death in 1945.

Israel's 50 agorot stamp honoring the 25th Zionist Congress depicts the emblems of the first Zionist Congress which took place in Basle, Switzerland, in 1897 and the forthcoming Congress in Jerusalem.

NEW ISSUE
Recently this column discussed the issuance of the 4-cent U. S. Echo I "Communications For Peace" stamp which was placed on first day sale December 15 in Washington, D. C.

The design features the balloon-like communications satellite in orbit with a part of the earth in the lower left portion. Radio waves to and from Echo I are denoted by arc lines. A single star is shown in the upper central portion. The design was based on a drawing by Ervine Metzger of

Pig Spends Night In One-Cell Jail

HILLIARD, Ohio (AP)—Police Chief Louis Riffle found a pig in the pokie, but he didn't buy it.

Riffle reported finding the "middle-aged pig" in the village's one-cell jail when he opened his office. He learned volunteer firemen had put it there after discovering it running loose in front of the fire station.

Mayor Gaymon Wright had the pig taken to a nearby farm and Chief Riffle had his jail deodorized.

CENTIMETER MEASUREMENT
PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Wally Briscoe, chairman of the Miss Pine Bluff Beauty pageant, did a double take when he saw the reply of 21-year-old Gudrun Pastenbecker to a form query on her dimensions.

Miss Pastenbecker, a German girl who entered the contest, replied she measured 86-57-38. Briscoe finally discovered she was measuring in centimeters. In inches that works out 34-22-35.

GOVERNOR HAS PROBLEM
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The executive mansion has been less than a dream house for Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio.

He's gotten several colds because the heating plant overheats some rooms and leaves others chilly, and there also have been sewer problems. Now workmen are coping with the latest problem—moths in the expensive carpeting.

COLLECTION AUCTIONED

The stamp collection of the late Milton A. Holmes of New Jersey, reputed to be one of the finest United States collections in existence, was sold at auction recently for an amount in excess of $71,000. Top price at the auction was $6,000 for an unused example of the 1869 30-center with the flags inverted. It is catalogued at $8,000.

The United Nations Postal Administration has made available to collectors a souvenir folder to which is attached all the stamps issued by the United Nations in 1960. The folder is multi-colored, the front illustration showing the U. N. buildings and back cover bearing a photograph of the ornamental stairway on the U. N. Plaza. The folders are on sale for 95 cents each. Mail orders should be addressed to the U. N. Nations, N. Y.

UNSOLVED MYSTERY

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The mystery of human footprints in stone are no nearer a solution today than when they were discovered in 1850.

The footprints are on the top and side of a huge stone on a farm in Johnson County. The stone is six feet wide and 10 feet high and geologists say it has been there for hundreds of years.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—A note has been pinned to one page in the marriage license record book in the office of County Recorder John G. Utz. It reads:

"—phoned. He said Emma would not marry him."

Utz says he pinned the note to the record to show why the license data was not complete. He adds there would be no refund to the man who lost Emma.

CONVICT 4 OF VOTE FRAUD IN 1958 PRIMARY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A jury Wednesday night convicted four Philadelphia election officials of charges of committing vote frauds during the May, 1958, primary election. A fifth defendant was acquitted.

Two other defendants were ordered acquitted by Judge Joseph Sloane of Quarter Sessions Court before the case was given to the jury.

All of the defendants are from the Third Division of the Fifth Ward.

Convicted were Mrs. Anna M. Antolelli, 47, judge of elections; Mrs. Katherine V. Kelly, 52, voting machine inspector; Mrs. Julia Hurwitz, 33, majority inspector; and Joseph J. Condra, minority clerk.

ACQUIT INSPECTOR

The jury acquitted Rosalie G. Morrone, a minority inspector. Ralph Ottaviano, 47, Democratic committeeman, and Benjamin Shefrin, 62, Republican committeeman, were ordered acquitted.

The four convicted officials were released on their own recognizance in the custody of their attorneys, pending an appeal for a new trial.

They were found guilty of conspiracy and neglect in permitting the registration of alleged fraudulent votes. Each faces a maximum prison term of two years and a $100 fine.

SUGGESTS NEW TAX MEASURE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., has proposed liberalization of tax depreciation allowances to industry as one of three measures President Kennedy could take to "throw the economy into high gear."

Kennedy has said he will recommend accelerated depreciation for heavy plant equipment.

Goldwater, a leading spokesman for the conservative wing of the GOP, also called on Kennedy to:

Withdraw his recommendation for an increase in the $1-an-hour minimum wage.

COULD UP PRICES

Make a plea to labor leaders "to ease their pressure for wage increases not tied to productivity, for a 32-hour week and for extension of 'feather-bedding' practices."

Goldwater said an increase in the minimum wage would have an impact on the whole wage structure with the result that prices would be forced up.

Speaking Wednesday night before the Delaware Valley Industrial Editors at the Poor Richard Club, Goldwater accused labor of "monopolistic controls," which he said have the effect of fixing prices.

He said that organized labor's annual demands for "unearned" wage hikes are a "basic reason for the wage-price spiral."

In 1960, infant mortality in the United States dropped below 26.0 per 1,000 live births for the first time in the nation's history. Insurance statisticians say the previous low was 26.1 per 1,000 live births in 1956.

HEALTH IN RHYME TIME

Watch out where you're going When you're riding on a bike. Laws are meant to be obeyed By young and old alike. There are twenty-seven million Bike riders on the go Who should peddle in observance Of rules they ought to know. Our highway tragedies include Bicyclists who die needlessly In major traffic accidents, Because of riding heedlessly.

UMW Backing Its President

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Delegates to the United Mine Workers District 1 quadrennial convention have voted unanimous confidence in their president, August J. Lippi. He faces a charge of income tax evasion and a retrial on an alleged violation of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

A resolution promising Lippi unqualified support Wednesday said attacks on him had been made by "unscrupulous minions of anti-union interests."

Lippi, 59, of Exeter, told the convention that he has been subjected to "every unfair method in the presentation of evidence."

ISSUES WARRANT

As Lippi spoke, Judge John W. Murphy of U. S. District Court in Scranton issued a warrant for his arrest, along with former Gov. John S. Fine and six other Luzerne County residents on charges of income tax violation.

Lippi also is waiting for a new trial for violation of the Taft-Hartley Law granted him by the U. S. District Court in Wilmington, Del.

He was convicted there last June on charges of accepting $8,000 from the now defunct Knox Coal Co. while representing its employees in the UMW. The court ruled later that the indictment had been defective.

The ground hog became an honored American animal when colonists chose it as a substitute for the European hedgehog. In early European tradition it was the hedgehog which cast a shadow on Candlemas Day.

OFFERS "FORD TIMES" FREE

George W. Crouse, Crouse Motor Sales, Taneytown, announced today that, in line with Ford dealers' support of the Civil War Centennial, he is offering to the public special centennial issues of "Ford Times" magazine.

The Centennial stories represent the longest series on a single subject ever to appear in the 53 years' publication of Ford Times, Crouse said.

More than 100 pages of the March, April, and May issues of "Ford Times" are devoted to the Civil War Centennial.

The March issue contains articles on Fort Sumter, Charleston, a background story on the war, modern muzzle-loaders, a revisiting of battleground sites, and a list of events to see during the first centennial year.

Crouse said the commemorative section of the March issue of "Ford Times" is based on observations during the first year of the Civil War Centennial planned under the guidance of the Civil War Centennial Commission, Washington, D. C., with the aid of 43 state Civil War Commissions and many historical groups.

"We will be glad to give visitors to our dealership a copy of the centennial issues of 'Ford Times' as long as our supply lasts," Crouse said. "We hope our efforts will be of some help in directing national interest to the many tourist attractions in the area."

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — The fire company answered four fire and 12 ambulance calls during February. It was reported at the regular monthly meeting held in the fire hall Monday night.

Robert Boone reported that the Cumberland Valley Volunteer Firemen's Booster meeting will be held in the Taneytown fire hall Saturday, April 15. The Union Bridge, Harney and Taneytown companies will be host for the Fire Prevention parade and dance to be held this fall.

The Carroll County Chiefs' meeting for March will be held in Littlestown with a demonstration by the Mine Safety Corp. The fire hazard committee reported that the same fire hazard still exists at the Reindollar Hardware Store. Bill totaling $897.92 were approved for payment. Receipts were $831.33. The trustees were ordered to buy new blinds and polish for the floor in the meeting room.

Mrs. Kenneth Clom and Mrs. Elsie Reindollar are two Red Cross solicitors whose names were omitted in a recent article. Mrs. Clom will solicit on Middle St. and Mrs. Reindollar on Fairview Ave.

Indict Man For Threat To Kill

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Richard P. Pavlick, 74, was indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury on a charge of threatening to kill President Kennedy prior to his inauguration.

Pavlick, formerly of Belmont, N.H., was arrested in Florida last December.

When a man armed with a knife demanded Mrs. Frederick's purse, Jimmy grabbed him around the legs, knocking him off balance.

The robber hit Jimmy in the stomach, then fled.

Palm Beach, where the president-elect was vacationing, officials said. Acquaintances notified federal authorities of Pavlick's alleged intentions.

SLAKE BITE FATAL

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Blood transfusions, serum and care by snakebite specialists failed to save the life of Jimmy Cornell, 14, bitten on the hand Saturday by a diamondback rattler. He died Wednesday night, 96 hours after the rattlesnake's fangs struck him as he reached into a gopher hole.

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Officials say T. Sgt. James Woods, 51, apparently died of a heart attack. He was found dead Wednesday in the kitchen of his home in the DAV Air Force Base housing area.

SHUNS PUBLIC MEALS DUE TO 'UTTER BORES'

LONDON (AP)—Veteran Laborite legislator Emanuel (Manny) Shinwell says he won't be going to any more public lunches or dinners because they always seat him between "utter bores."

And that apparently includes Mrs. Harry S. Truman and the wife of the bishop of Washington.

Shinwell, a former defense minister, told the House of Commons during debate Wednesday night that if he is asked to any more government receptions, lunches or dinners, he will throw the invitations into his waste basket.

"They are usually a poor show. One finds oneself neighbored on both sides by people who are utter bores," he declared.

Shinwell cited a dinner he attended at the British Embassy in Washington—date unspecified.

LIMITED CONVERSATION

"On my left," he said, "was Mrs. Truman and on my right was the wife of the bishop of Washington. When I engaged in conversation with Mrs. Truman, all she could talk about was the church in Alabama.

"After awhile I thought the other side might be more interesting. Members can imagine the nature of that conversation.

"That is the reason I don't want to be invited to any of these places."

Shinwell didn't identify the bishop's wife further, but the Rt. Rev. Angus Dun has been Episcopal bishop of Washington since 1944.

There was no immediate comment from any of the other principals involved.

Shinwell was speaking during a

8 Countians Going To Pocono Confab

Eight members of the Adams County Senior Extension Club will attend the tri-state conference to be held for Senior Extension groups in Pennsylvania, New York and adjoining states Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Pocono Manor.

Theme for the 11th annual session will be "Not at the Top But Climbing."

The countians planning to attend are Dorothy Anthony, Gardeners; Ruth and Sara Bretzman, Bendersville; Dorothy and Emma Keller, Gettysburg R. 4; Paul Kuhn, Aspers; Theresa Murren, McSherrystown, and Nevin Wintrade, Littlestown.

debate on a government request for additional funds for government hospitality.

The House approved the appropriation.

OPPOSE U. S. SCHOOL AID

HARRISBURG (AP)—Opposition to federal aid for private and parochial schools has been urged by the Pennsylvania Council of Churches.

Council President Horace G. Ports, York, Wednesday asked the group's 10,000 related Protestant churches to express their concern to their lawmakers.

The council, at a meeting of its Executive Committee, said federal aid to private and parochial schools would be a "devastating blow to the public school system which must be maintained."

The council's statement said the state and federal governments should "continue to accord freedom to religious bodies to carry on their own schools."

But, it added, "those who establish and promote parochial schools should accept the responsibility to provide full support for those schools, and not expect to receive subsidies or special privileges from public authorities."

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—Fidel Castro was in the market today for a new diplomatic staff in the Netherlands.

Ambassador Ignacio Fiterre, his embassy counselor and attache, and the two members of the consulate in Rotterdam resigned Wednesday in protest against the Castro government's policies.

TWO ARRESTED IN MELEE OVER SEGREGATION

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A stand-in demonstration protesting segregation in theaters turned into a rock-throwing melee between Negroes and white youths in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Only two persons were arrested but police broke up clashes involving as many as 50 white persons and 50 Negroes before order was restored late Tuesday night.

In other demonstrations, 175 Negroes were arrested during a singing, clapping protest against segregation at downtown stores in Louisville, Ky.; five pickets were jailed at Rock Hill, S.C. and six sit-in demonstrators were arrested at Rutherfordton, N.C.

REFUSES TO YIELD

South Carolina's Gov. Ernest F. Hollings refused to yield to what he called attempts "to exact the customs of New Jersey" on his state. Demand for desegregated hotel facilities in Charleston for a meeting of the National Civil War Centennial Commission next month had been made by New Jersey delegates.

World heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson declared himself satisfied that there was no segregation of the audience at his successful Miami Beach title defense against Ingemar Johansson Monday night, and returned a forfeit check of $10,000 to Feature Sports Inc. The check was put up as a guarantee against segregation.

The Navy, replying to a protest from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said, "All officers and men are granted liberty with no discrimination whatsoever."

The NAACP had accused Navy officials of "heaping humiliation on Negro officers and men" in visiting strictly segregated ports in South Africa.

Orrtanna

By MRS. LUTHER WETZEL
ORRTANNA — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Naugle were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Naugle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donaldson, in observance of their silver wedding anniversary at the Donaldson home Sunday. The anniversary date was Tuesday.

The Naugles have a son, Dean, and two grandsons, Timothy Edward and Walter Dean, of Rockville, Md., who with Mrs. Naugle were present for the dinner. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Donaldson, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Naugle, and their children, Beverly May and Stephen Frank; Mr. and Mrs. Lee McGlaughlin, Fairfield, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Naugle, who is the former Ruth Jean Donaldson. The couple received many gifts. A roast turkey and duck dinner was served. Flowers honoring the Naugles were placed in the Methodist Church Sunday by the family and Mr. and Mrs. McGlaughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple had as guests Saturday, Mrs. Samuel Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weaver, the Misses Lillian and Alice Weaver, Paul Weaver, Mrs. Mary Bagent and family, all of Hagerstown.

Says State Short Of School Funds

HARRISBURG (AP)—Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith said Wednesday the partial payment of some $30 million for fourth class school district subsidies cannot be paid until the state gets more money.

"We have been assured by the Budget Office that additional tax payments are expected this week, which will raise the balance in the general fund to the point where these warrants can be issued and the checks written," Smith said in a statement.

He said the proposed payments, which represent half of the state subsidy due the more than 1,700 fourth-class districts, total $29,516,961 and the state's general fund has a balance of about $31 million.

BOSTON (AP)—President Kennedy's sister, Mrs. Eunice Shriver, 38, of Chicago, is expected to remain at St. Elizabeth's Hospital about a week following an appendectomy Tuesday.

for the jointure will be discussed.

The York Springs Homemakers will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Donald Lehman. The subject will be "Time Talks" by Mrs. Helen D. Tunison.

The Junior Class of Bermudian Springs will present Friday and Saturday a play entitled "Professor, How Could You?" a three-act comedy about a college professor who can have the deanship of a college if he finds himself a wife. The professor hates girls and things become quite mixed up. There will be a different cast of girls each night. The boys' cast is as follows: Keats Perry (professor), Mark E. Weiser; Boggon (English butler), Tom Hardy; Grandpa, Barry Hinkle; John Appleby, Tom Wolf; Butcher Boy, Jan Zeigler.

PLAN MORE AID TO LAOS REGIME

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is reported considering giving more military aid to the Communist-menaced royal government of Laos.

But the United States is reluctant to do so, the same sources said here Tuesday night, because of the extreme danger of being drawn into a sustained buildup of both sides that could lead to a Korea-like situation.

If the royal government requests more aid, the sources said, the United States would have to give all that it is feasible and practical.

Former Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma has reported the Soviet Union has supplied the rebels with 20 times more arms than the United States has.

American concern over the Communist arms buildup has been known for some time.

Prince Sompasana, secretary of state for foreign affairs in the royal Laotian government, underscored that concern after meeting Tuesday with Undersecretary of State Chester Bowles.

Sompasana told newsmen after the meeting that free nations should halt the flow of Communist weapons.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Consolidation Coal Co. says it is working on the possibility of constructing a coal pipeline in the eastern seaboard area.

The company said Tuesday it is working on the project with a group of Eastern utilities but did not give the names of the firms.

Consol also said it is doing research with two steel companies on methods to produce superior metallurgical coke for use in iron-making blast furnaces. The names of the steel companies were not given.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Pennsylvania's secretary of commerce, William Davlin, is doing fine in Johns Hopkins Hospital here where he is being treated for a malignancy. A hospital spokesman issued the "fine" report Wednesday but said it has not been determined when the state cabinet official will be released.

The Story Behind The Book

"THE AGONY AND THE ECSTASY" By IRVING STONE

When commissioned to paint and decorate the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel by Pope Julius II, Michelangelo protested, "I am a sculptor, not a painter!" But there was no way he could avoid the assignment; the Pope demanded much but he knew his man.

The frescoes Michelangelo produced, ultimately involving 343 colossal figures within a complex frame of simulated architecture, absorbed nearly four years of his life, and established him as the greatest interpreter of his age, fusing magnificently the ideas of humanism and the church, previously kept apart.

In "The Agony and the Ecstasy," the Book-of-the-Month Club selection for April, Irving Stone re-creates the life and the times of this great genius of the high Italian Renaissance, and tells the story of his fascinating and prodigious achievements.

Born in 1475 of a family of noble but impoverished Florentine burghers, Michelangelo Buonarroti first proved his artistic skill as an apprentice of the painter Ghirlandaio. But his predominant interest was sculpture, and very shortly he left Ghirlandaio to accept the patronage of the mighty Medici family.

During the rest of his long life, spent alternately in Florence and Rome, he created some of the most brilliant works of sculpture the world has ever known. They include Bacchus; David, his first colossal; the Pieta in Saint Peter's; Moses on the tomb of Pope Julius II, and the allegorical figures on the Medici tombs — Twilight and Dawn, Night and Day.

SCULPTOR AND PRINTER

But like his contemporary Leonardo da Vinci (who was 23 years his senior), Michelangelo truly represents the universal man of the Renaissance. He was not only a great sculptor and painter but a great draftsman and also a writer whose diaries, correspondence and sonnets reveal to us today much of his inner life. Enjoying the patronage of the Vatican under seven popes as well as that of many princely households, chiefly the Medicis, he helped fortify beleaguered cities and engineered roads over mountains that were thought impassable. And in 1546, when he was 71 years old, he was appointed chief architect of Saint Peter's, whose majestic dome is one of the architectural wonders of the world.

Michelangelo was always a lonely man, desperately plagued by the financial demands of his ineffectual family. He suffered from the jealousy of his contemporaries, and to a certain extent from his own envy of them, notably of Leonardo and Raphael. Frequently he found himself the pawn in the struggle for power among his various rivaling protectors, who alternately paid generously for his services and withheld from him the funds to buy the raw material — the marble, the paints, the wax and bronze and clay — that made his work possible. The three women he loved were denied him, and evil insinuations all but destroyed his relationship with the young man who was the inspiration of his old age.

Stone writes of him: "It was in the marrow of his bones to create only the finest he could produce; to create far beyond his abilities because he could be content with nothing that was not new, fresh, different, a palpable extension of the whole of the art. He had never compromised with quality; his integrity as a man and an artist was the rock on which his life was built. If he split that rock by indifference, by giving less than the exhausting best of himself, if he were content merely to get by, what was left of him?"

LIVED IN ITALY

Irving Stone, a trim and vital man of 57, spent more than two years in Italy with his wife, Jean, doing research for and writing "The Agony and the Ecstasy." An exacting craftsman, he spares no pains to make his work accurate and has been known to travel hundreds of miles to verify a single fact. For his biography of Michelangelo he employed an aide in Rome who served as research worker, translator and cicerone in finding and explaining historical places.

Stone worked his way through the University of California by playing a saxophone for dances and working during summers on fruit ranches, in a meat-packing plant, in a powerhouse, and as a hotel clerk and a salesman. He was an instructor at the University of Southern California and at the University of California while earning his M.A. and preparing for his Ph.D.

For 10 years he lived in New York writing short stories and plays — 18 of the latter, two of which were produced. Then, during a trip to Europe, he interested in the life and work of Vincent Van Gogh. His first biographical novel, "Lust for Life," was the result. Stone had found his niche. Subsequently he wrote novels about Jack London — "Sailor on Horseback"; Jessie Fremont — "Immortal Wife"; Eugene V. Debs — "Adversary in the House"; Andrew and Rachel Jackson — "The President's Lady," and Abraham and Mary Todd Lincoln — "Love Is

BRIEFS

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A circuit court jury has denied the damage claim of a man who said his critically ill wife was taken to a funeral home instead of to a hospital.

Rufus B. Leonard Sr. testified Tuesday he called the Wilson-Sammon Funeral Home for an ambulance after his wife collapsed at their home in May 1959.

The funeral home maintained she was dead when the ambulance crew arrived at the Leonard house.

Republic Of Ireland Seeks Further Expansion Of Its Economic Development Plan

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Millions of Americans will be celebrating on Friday the tradition of the care-free Irish. Most of those in the parades and various extracurricular shenanigans will even boast a family tree showing roots in the land of St. Patrick.

But spare a thought, too, for the some three million souls in the Republic of Ireland itself. They are busily working on a new image far from just carefree laughter and song—and an occasional spirit-rewarding Donnybrook.

EXPANSION OF PLANS

It's an economic development program that any Irishman will tell you is dynamic. In Yankee business terms: The Irish Gross National Product—total output of goods and services—was up 5 per cent last year, about twice the growth in the United States, and exports in the last two years rose by nearly a fourth.

You can hear all this in New York, because the Irish Industrial Development Authority has an office in this big haven of the Irish. All hands are eager to get American firms to put money and factories and skills into this grand scheme for changing the old-fashioned concept of Ireland. The stress is all on producing goods, not for the Irish themselves, but for their export trade.

ADD NEW INDUSTRIES

In the last three years more than 100 new industries have found a home in Ireland, producing everything from ships to chewing gum.

Exports this year are expected to reach $476 million, or about $155 for every man, woman and child in the land. Between 1955 and 1959 export gains ranged from 37 per cent for printed matter to 900 per cent for garments.

The Irish, who have been known to boast a bit now and then, doubt that any other country can top those gains, or the Irish record for attracting foreign capital.

HOW THEY DO IT

And how do they do it? With tax exemptions, cash grants, nearness to growing markets, and a manpower surplus on which to draw at wage rates considerably less than in the United States.

So the Americans and the British are producing a variety of products ranging from fully fashioned knitwear to chewing gum and dry milk powder. The Japanese are making transistor radios at Shannon. The Germans are making cheese at Wexford, sweaters at Tralee, and building cranes at Killarney. The Dutch are turning out pianos at Shannon, plastic pipe in Dublin, and ships near Cork.

COMPARE INCENTIVES

Compare the incentives the Irish government offers with manufacturing conditions here. The foreign firm in Ireland gets 10 years tax exemption from income tax on export profits—or 22 years if he locates at Shannon Free Air port.

There is no sales or purchases or turnover tax, no capital gains tax and no extra tax on distributed profits.

The foreign manufacturer may receive outright cash grants up to 100 per cent on factory building costs, up to 50 per cent on machinery costs, and up to 100 per cent on worker-training costs.

The Irish also guarantee free transfer of the foreign firm's dividends, interest and profits into its own currency. And capital and appreciations can be repatriated at any time.

So that's what business is like in St. Patrick's halliwick this day, by the Irishmen's own story.

Government Will Lease 2,044 Acres

The Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army, is offering for lease a large area of land inside the chain link security fence on the Letterkenny Ordnance Depot Military Reservation, near Chambersburg. This is known as area 3 and contains approximately 2,044 acres, of which approximately 500 acres are cultivable. Four smaller tracts of land situated outside the security fence are also available for leasing. These contain 55 acres, 90 acres, 36 acres and 51 acres, respectively.

Use of these lands will be restricted to grazing and the growing of hay grasses, and caming and truck crops. The planting, cultivating or producing of any price-supported crops in surplus supply will not be permitted.

Detailed information, together with forms for use in submitting bids, may be obtained from the office of the post engineer, Letterkenny Ordnance Depot, Chambersburg, and arrangements for inspection of the lands may be made with that office between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Sealed bids will be received by the District Engineer, U.S. Army Engineer District, Washington, First and Douglas Sts., N.W., Washington 25, D. C. (Attention: Real Estate Division), until 2 p.m. March 27 at which place and time bids will be opened.

Rudisill, 30; and Gladys Rudisill; second row, Viola Sachs, 33 years; Esta Reindollar, 29; Bess Kapp, 34; Mervin Miller, 37; Naomi Schwartz, 37, and back row, Clara Hardman, 30 years, and Vergie Musser, 40 years. Those also honored but not in the picture included Erma Martin, 30 years, and Myrtle Oyler, 36 years.

Social Security

Q. I am 67 years of age. I inquired at the social security office when I was 65 and was told I had not worked long enough under social security to get retirement benefits. I have been told that the law has been changed and that it is now easier to qualify. Is this true?

A. Yes, and I suggest that you get in touch with your nearest social security office right away. The 1960 amendments to the social security law have reduced the amount of work required by about one-third. You may now be entitled on your wage record. If you reached 67 in 1960, you will need 2½ years of work to qualify for retirement benefits. Under the old law you would have needed 3½ years of work under social security in order to get benefits.

Q. Does this new rule regarding work apply to younger workers as well as older ones?

A. The amount of work required for the payment of retirement or survivors benefits has been reduced for anyone who will reach retirement age before 1982. A man becoming 65 after 1981, or a woman becoming age 62 after that year will still need 10 full years of work under social security to qualify for retirement benefits.

Q. My father who is now 75 had worked under social security for only about one year before he was forced to retire. He was told several years ago by the social security office he had not worked long enough to receive social security benefits. Has that rule been changed?

A. No, the rule is still the same and, that is, no one can become entitled to social security retirement benefits with less than a year and a half of work under social security.

Q. A friend of mine died a year ago leaving a widow and two minor children. She was not paid any social security because he had not worked long enough under social security. Would she now be entitled to benefits for herself and the children?

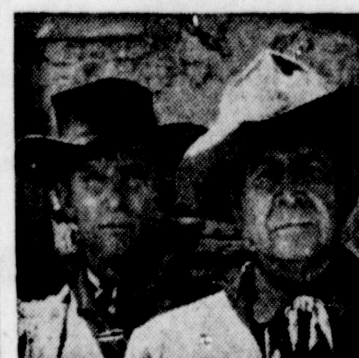

A. Without knowing his date of birth and his date of death, it is impossible for us to answer "yes" or "no"; however, you should tell this widow to get in touch with the social security office promptly. The survivors of workers who died after 1954 and who were not eligible for benefits under the old law because the deceased had not worked long enough may now be eligible because of the recent changes in the law.

TEEN-AGE HOP WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY

MRS. RALPH LONG
Phone HI 7-2231

EMMITSBURG — The Emmitsburg Jaycees will sponsor a teen-age record hop Saturday in the VFW annex beginning at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be available. The admission will be 60 cents per person.

Mrs. Clarence Orndorff recently observed her birthday anniversary.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Joy Saturday in honor of their son, Michael, who has been accepted for Officers Candidate School in the Marine Corps Reserves and will report to Quantico, Va., in the near future.

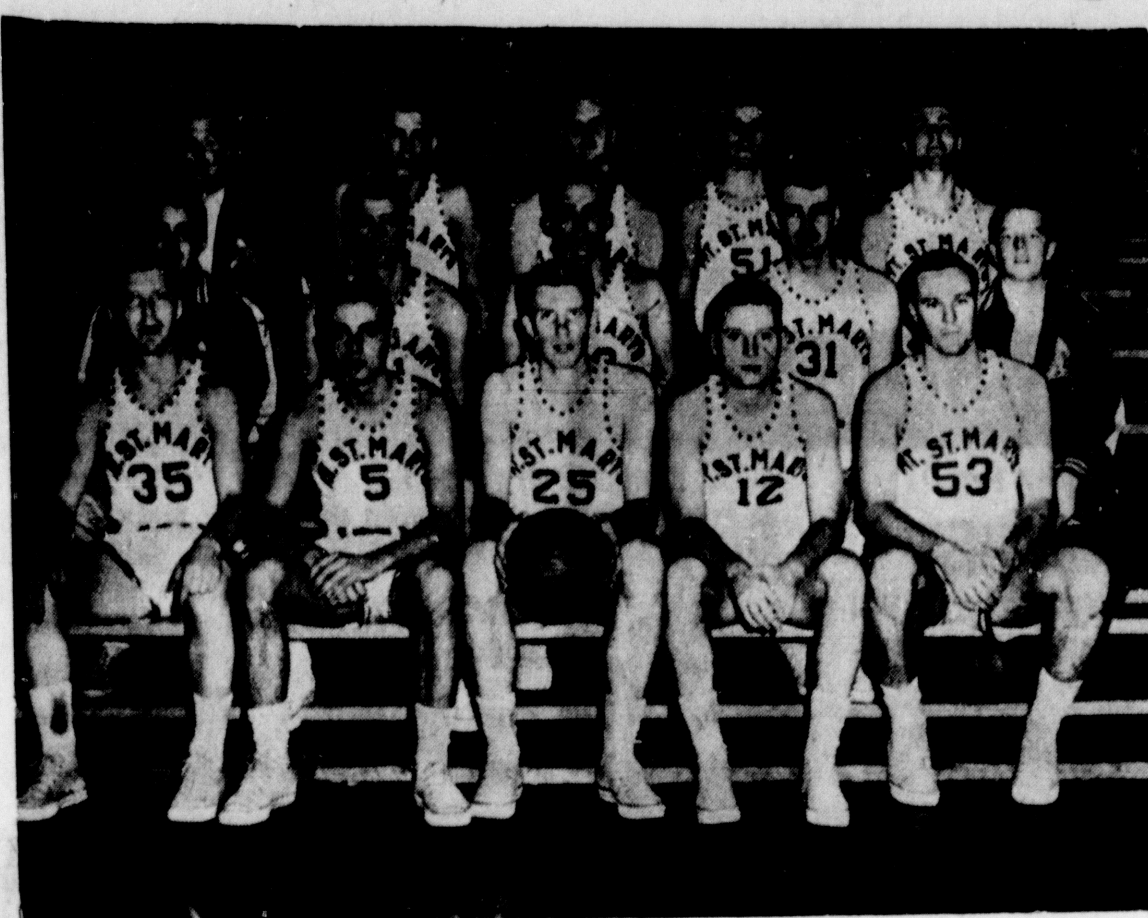

Mrs. Dolores Henke was elected president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Emmitsburg VFW Post at a recent meeting. Others elected were: Helen Sanders, senior vice president; Rita Byard; junior vice president; Anna Stoner, treasurer; Betty Ann Baker, chaplain; Mary Theresa Hollinger, conductress; Carrie Long, guard; Carmen Topper, Barbara Vaughn and Marion Timmerman, trustees; Gloria Martin, secretary; Corrine Seiss, Nancy Daner, Mary Sanders and Hazel Topper, color bearers; Idella Fite, flag bearer; Anna Marie Koontz, banner bearer; Mary Hoke, historian; Etta Mae Norris, patriotic instructor; Mary Hoke, musician.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Joy was baptized Sunday in St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The child received the name Barry Francis and the godparents were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henke.

Sp-4 David C. Wivell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wivell, has been discharged from the U. S. Army after three years of duty, two of which were spent in Munich, Germany, with the 24th Infantry Division.

J. Ward Kerrigan and Ralph Irelan are observing their birthday anniversaries today.

Nice for a crowd: cocktail-size frankfurters served in miniature finger rolls. Accompany with homemade mustard and pickle relish so guests can help themselves.

Basketball fans from a wide area in the East will be eagerly awaiting the outcome of the tournament game tonight between Mt. St. Mary's College and Austin Peay in Evansville. The Mount squad includes:

Jaycees To Give Award Of Merit

A young businessman in Emmitsburg will receive an award of merit at the annual Greater Emmitsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce banquet in the VFW annex next Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Emmitsburg business men and women will be guests at the annual affair at which Rev. Dr. Nevin Smith, pastor of the United Church of Christ, Hanover, will speak. George L. Danner is chairman of the banquet. Carroll Frock Jr. will serve as toastmaster. Donald Eyer is president of the Jaycees.

Only three judges know who will receive the award of merit. His identity will be kept a secret until it is announced at the banquet. He must be between the ages of 21 and 35.

Parsley potatoes, often on menus, are made by boiling small potatoes whole and then dousing with melted butter and minced parsley.

DISARMAMENT NEGOTIATIONS MAY RESUME

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union were reported agreed today to renew disarmament negotiations next Aug. 1 provided they can also agree on basic principles for disarmament and the makeup of the negotiating group.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said Wednesday night he thought he and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had "generally reached agreement" on a date for resumption of negotiations, which the Soviets broke off last June 27. He would not give the date but other sources said it was Aug. 1.

Earlier President Kennedy said at his news conference that the United States first suggested September and then "August at the latest" as the time to start.

Stevenson had an hour's talk with Gromyko Wednesday, his third such in 10 days. He said he had arranged tentatively to see Gromyko again Friday and that they were working on a resolution to be submitted to the General Assembly.

Stevenson said the resolution was intended to cover the time and place for new negotiations, the composition of the new negotiating committee and some basic principles for disarmament.

This indicated that the United States had made a concession. Other diplomats said privately that at early meetings with Gromyko, Stevenson had opposed

Shorthand Writer To Increase Work

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Every day for 25½ years Mrs. Edward Dodd has written a postcard to a member of her family, most of them in shorthand.

"It's no chore. There's plenty to say, and postcards are cheap and convenient," she explained. One sister in Somerset, Mrs. Edwin Roberts, replies in shorthand.

Mrs. Dodd's husband buys the cards 500 at a time, but he'll have to increase the order next year. Their daughter leaves for college and she plans to learn shorthand "so I can send notes home in code."

Mothers Know How To Raise Children

BURLINGAME, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. John Hillyard was sacking potatoes in a self-service grocery store when a woman beside her remarked something about how "many people we mothers have to feed."

Then she added, somewhat apologetically: "I'm expecting my 12th child. I suppose you are going to ask, 'How do you do it?'" "Well, I-I, no," said Mrs. Hillyard. "I know just how you feel about that question."

"I already have 13."

The sun is 400,000 times as bright as the full moon. It gives the earth 6 million times as much light as all the other stars put together.

mentioning principles in any resolution since the new Kennedy administration had not yet formulated its disarmament policy. Kennedy told his news conference his experts are "working full time on developing an American position."

JUDY GARLAND GLOWS AS STAR IN NEW MOVIE

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Judy's back, and she's sure enough the new Garland we've been hearing about.

The game gal who starred for 20 years in Hollywood has returned for her first movie in almost seven years. The last one was "A Star Is Born," a handsome job that got her an Academy nomination.

Even at 38 she has the glow of legend about her. You think of the youthful triumphs, and the mature years full of troubles and disappointment. The smash comeback at the Palace, then other times of illness and problems.

CHEERFUL AS STARLET

The travails now seem far behind her. When I saw her on the set of "Judgment at Nuremberg," she was as cheerful as a starlet. She is still a looker. Her face seems slimmer than in recent years. Though she is inclined to be buxom, she tapers down to a pair of shapely gams. These were personal observations. She is bored with questions about her weight, and with good reason.

Is she mad at Hollywood?

"No, not at all," she replied. "How could I be? I've had some wonderful times here."

HOUSE IN LONDON

"I am selling my house here merely because it's more convenient for me to live in London and New York. My work is centered around those places; Hollywood is actually out of the way as a place to live. You have to fly five hours just to get to New York. Then it's a matter of getting to Europe or wherever else I'm working."

She said she would keep a house in London and an apartment in New York. She'll return to England in June, after her three children get out of school.

In contrast to "A Star Is Born" which took six months to film, she is working eight days in "Judgment." Like Marlene Dietrich and Montgomery Clift, she is playing a witness at the war crimes trial of German jurists. Judy plays a German girl who became involved in a Nazi racial pollution case.

WANTS GOOD PICTURES

"More movies? Sure, I'm interested. They can be either dramatic or musical; it doesn't matter to me. I just want to do good pictures."

Her future plans include a concert tour of the United States; she just scored a hit with her 2½-hour song sessions in Texas. She also has some dates in Europe and may do the London company of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" — if she can sew up the film rights, too.

GETS STATE POST

HARRISBURG (AP) — Guy J. Swope, Harrisburg, former governor of Puerto Rico, has been named to serve as deputy state treasurer, effective May 1, when Democrats take over the state fiscal offices.

State Treasurer-Elect Grace M. Sloan said Tuesday she has chosen the former Democratic congressman to serve as her deputy.

Swope served as budget secretary of Pennsylvania under former Gov. George H. Earle.

FATALLY BURNED
FEASTERVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Louis Bowers, 43-year-old farm hand, was fatally burned early Wednesday in a fire that wrecked a converted barn at the Buck Ridge Aquatic Gardens.

Another farm hand, Fred Froelich, 55, was carried from the top floor of the building where he roomed with Bowers, and another man, Lee Busse. He is in Lower Bucks County Hospital with burns of the hands.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation authorizing Pennsylvania to join a 22-state compact for reciprocal treatment of mental health patients was proposed Tuesday by the Public Welfare Department.

Secretary Ruth Grigg Horting said the legislative proposal "is one of the most important public welfare measures of the current legislature."

Orrtanna

MRS. LUTHER WETZEL
ORRTANNA—Evangelistic services beginning Sunday evening have been announced by the pastor, Rev. Alfred Gotwalt, at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church.

Services will be held at 7 o'clock Sunday evening and through the week at 7:30 o'clock. There will be guest speakers and special music.

Mrs. Paul Wetzel, Mrs. Dale Wetzel and Mrs. William Weigel attended a meeting of the Olewiler Fund at Park Ave. EUB Church in Chambersburg Tuesday evening sponsored by the Chambersburg district ministerium. A supper preceded the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shulley had with them on Sunday their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Martz, York. Their sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shulley, Charman, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shulley and daughter, Bonnie, Falls Church, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Freeman, New York City, spent Saturday with the Shuleys, parents of Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. Dale Herring is reported to be as well as can be expected following a major operation at the Warner Hospital on Monday. She was admitted as a patient on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fissel have moved from the Miller property at Hilltown to his newly-erected home, near Orrtanna.

Weekend guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Gotwalt were Mrs. Gotwalt's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Liek, children, Timothy and Katrina, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lightner, all of Manchester.

Mrs. Cora Sharrar and Mrs. Ross Deardorff of here and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fitz, Waynesboro, spent Sunday in Hanover where they attended open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eisenberger, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Sharrar is a cousin of Mrs. Eisenberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapman spent the weekend at Bedford as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Stull, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Chapman.

WESTMINSTER PLAYS IN NAIA

By SKIPPER PATRICK

Associated Press Sports Writer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "A real cold night for Westminster and a real hot night for us . . . that's what it will take."

Coach C. E. Gaines of Winston-Salem (N.C.) Teachers College, which got into the National Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament the hard way, says only the cold combination will enable his Rams to oust the top seeded Pennsylvania school in the quarterfinals tonight.

Coach Buzz Ridl of Westminster doesn't agree. He has contended from the start that his Titans shouldn't have been first seeded in the 32-team, week-long tournament.

BEAT A&I

"Any team that beats Tennessee A. & I. State 10 points in a playoff can't be considered anything but a favorite," Ridl commented after his team's second round 85-73 victory over Newberry (S.C.) College Wednesday night.

Winston-Salem, 86-76 winner over West Virginia State in the second round, whipped three-time champion Tennessee A. & I. in a district playoff.

Winston-Salem has good size and a fine shooter in Cleo Hill, who packs a 27-plus point average.

Westminster, one of the smaller teams in the tournament, is very fast and boast a great little playmaker and scorer in Ron Galbreath, who has a 23-point season average.

KNIGHTS DROP BETHLEHEM IN PIAA PLAYOFF

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

High-riding Uniontown and unbeaten Bethlehem, touted to be two of this year's best Class A teams, both were knocked from the PIAA playoffs Wednesday night.

Reading managed a stunning one-point victory over Bethlehem in eastern interdistrict preliminaries while Mount Lebanon recorded an equally surprising three-point win over a Uniontown squad which had both strength and depth.

The defeat of the two teams which had been favorites to win the east and west crowns and meet in the finals for the state title left the Class A race wide open.

FOUL SHOT

The Red Knights of Reading, District 3 champs, beat the best of District 11 with a foul shot in the final seconds of the game which ended 49-48.

Mount Lebanon went into the game with the western favorites practically unheralded but wound up on the long end of the 59-56 score.

The victory gave the tall, Allegheny County team the WPIAL Class A championship, a title won last year by Farrell.

Farrell went on to win the state Class A championship last year but was knocked out of competition this year before the end of the season.

SHAMOKIN BEATEN

Another Class A team with a long and impressive unbeaten string was knocked out of the playoffs when Nanticoke whipped Shamokin, 52-33.

Shamokin also had an undefeated season to its credit last year. And, just like this year, Nanticoke was the team that ended Shamokin's playoff championship hopes.

In a western interdistrict game, Johnstown swamped Somerset, 77-39. The difference in the score was not surprising since Somerset, champions of District 5 which has only two other Class A teams, was not particularly impressive during the season.

Only two games are scheduled tonight and both are Class C eastern semifinals.

West Reading, the defending state champ, will meet Butler Twp. in one contest while Forest City and Muncy collide in the other.

Discuss Changes In Immigration Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., has discussed with President Kennedy some possible changes in the immigration law.

Walter said Tuesday Kennedy was interested in legislation to help unite families separated during World War II and to get rid of racketeers who avoid deportation through the courts.

Lawrence Won't Back Down On Restricted Drivers' Licenses

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Lawrence administration's proposal to use radar against highway speeders may have suffered a fatal setback with the governor's rejection of restricted drivers' licenses.

Lawrence told his weekly news conference Wednesday he would not weaken the state's stringent system of license suspensions and revocations "to gain anything."

At least three Senate Democrats and several Republicans have said publicly they will not vote for radar unless a system of restricted licenses is installed for persons who depend on driving to make their living.

Senate Democratic leaders said after the radar bill was defeated last week they might go along with restricted licenses to get votes for the radar bill.

BECOME INEFFECTUAL

Lawrence said only 1.29 per cent, 77,326, of Pennsylvania's 5,248,518 licensed drivers had their driving privileges revoked or suspended last year.

"Under the restricted license theory, almost every person gainfully employed could apply for and get a restricted license," he said. "As a result, a preponderance of offending drivers would be returned to the road without effective penalty and the state's highway safety program would become largely ineffectual."

He attributed a decline in highway fatalities last year to the safety program, including the suspension system, adding:

"I will continue the effort of this administration to maintain these gains and I urgently request the members of the General Assembly to join in this effort."

WANTS BOTH

Asked if he was conceding defeat of the radar bill to assure continuation of the suspension program, Lawrence said:

"I am not putting it on that basis. I want both. And friends of traffic safety in Pennsylvania will support both."

The governor suggested that the state police correct "that fiasco of last week" and stage a demonstration of radar that will prove its value.

He referred to an apparently erroneous clocking of a state police car by radar last Tuesday. The ill-starred test resulted in defeat of the radar proposal later in the day. It has since been revived and Senate Democrats hope to vote on it again next week.

Several Senate Democrats charged at the time that Republicans chose to make a "political issue" of radar following the demonstration.

NOT MAKING VOTES

"If they (Republicans) are making a political issue out of it, it is a mighty good political issue for us . . . You are not making votes by opposing traffic safety."

Other news conference developments:

Appointments—Lawrence said no decision has been made on a replacement for John Rice, secretary of the Commonwealth and state Democratic chairman, who has been named ambassador to the Netherlands.

"I have seen some names mentioned and all of them are all right with me," he said.

PICKED ADJUTANT GENERAL

Lawrence said he had picked a successor for Adj. Gen. Anthony Drexel Biddle, new ambassador to Spain, but was not prepared to disclose his choice.

Taxes—The governor said he did

Austin M. Lee, 41, Philadelphia attorney, or W. Stuart Helm, 52, an oil company salesman.

Bowman appears the best bet to re-establish the liberal-neutral bloc that put over Agnew. He also could presumably muster support from the older faction because of his Dauphin County credentials.

Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees was the last major leaguer to win a triple batting crown. He won the American League batting home run and runs batted in titles in 1956.

SAYS HEADS OF LABOR COOL TO GOV. LAWRENCE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Speculation of a possible coolness between Gov. Lawrence and organized labor was increased Wednesday night by the absence of four labor leaders who were invited to a dinner for State Superior Court judges.

The four labor leaders sent regrets to the governor's office that they could not attend.

They were Harry Boyer and Joseph Burke, co-presidents of the AFL-CIO; Charles Sludden of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Lester Thomas of the United Mine Workers.

All are active in pushing programs of interest to organized labor in the legislature.

HAD BEEN INVITED

The governor's office confirmed that they had been invited but had sent regrets that they couldn't be present. The stated reasons varied but mostly they were on the basis that they had prior commitments and would be out of town.

A highly placed labor source, who declined to be identified, said Lawrence probably will be asked soon to sit down with labor leaders and discuss certain matters.

Specifically, the source said, labor was interested in getting more cooperation from the administration in pushing some legislation and policies in which it has a major interest. He didn't elaborate.

The source said labor leaders were a bit disappointed at not being called in by the governor to consult on legislative policies in which they might have some interest.

He said former Gov. George M. Leader used to make this a matter of routine but that Lawrence "apparently just does things differently."

Says Council Would Fight Parochial Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A National Council of Churches official said today he is sure a majority of its governing body "would be opposed to loans for parochial school construction."

The Rev. Dr. Gerald K. Knoff, executive secretary of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, spoke in testimony prepared for a hearing of the House Education Committee, which is considering the administration's school aid bill.

Dr. Knoff cited previous pronouncements by the council's governing board, which opposed any federal aid to church schools. He said the board has not taken a definite position on loans for parochial schools, but predicted it would oppose them.

MEANY IS AROUSED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President George S. Meany of AFL-CIO says some members of the Kennedy administration are saying the nation's economy isn't so bad after all.

"They are talking," said Meany Tuesday in a speech to the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union, "as if they are part and parcel of the Eisenhower administration."

He asserted there are more unemployed today than in 20 years.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A five-day strike at Snellenburg's center city department store ended Wednesday.

Employees Tuesday night ratified a new two-year contract which included a new hospitalization plan and an incentive bonus plan. A majority of the clerks also will receive a $1 increase in weekly base pay. The various old rates were not disclosed.

PEGGY CASS TO STAR WITH 3 CHIMPANZEES

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Peggy Cass is one of very few performers whose armory of acting aids includes a bunch of bananas and a bag of jelly beans.

Miss Cass is also a very brave woman. She has been signed as star of a comedy series for next season called "The Hathaways." Her co-stars are three chimpanzees, and it is well-known that small children and monkeys are worse scene-stealers than mugging actors or old actresses flourishing chiffon handkerchiefs.

"A lot of people have been telling me I'm crazy to do a series with the chimps," Peggy confessed. "But I'm really not concerned. In fact I'll be perfectly happy—if the show's a hit and people just know I'm around."

REGULAR PAIR GUEST

She has already made the acquaintance of her primate co-stars.

"I've not only met them, but I've been bitten by them," she explained. "When we started to make the pilot, I was introduced to Charlie, the smartest one. He came right up but instead of shaking hands, he just sort of nipped the end of a finger of my glove—not hard enough to hurt, just enough to let me know who was boss."

Meanwhile Peggy leaves today for two weeks in London with the Jack Paar Show, on which she has become one of the regular guests.

Recommended tonight: Family Classics, CBS, 8-9 (Eastern Standard Time)—adaptation of Kipling's "The Light That Failed," with Richard Basehart.

Food For Needy To Reach Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—A freight car loaded with canned pork and gravy for distribution to the needy in Dauphin, Lebanon and Westmoreland counties, is due to arrive here today.

The State Property and Supplies Department, which supervises the surplus food distribution program, said the shipment due here has 1,300 cases of the meat and gravy.

It said 800 cases of the meat, one of six new foods added to the surplus food program, will go to Westmoreland County. It said Dauphin County will get 300 cases and Lebanon County the remaining 110 cases.

Forecast

Extended forecasts for March 16 through March 20:

Western Pennsylvania—Temperatures will average 4 to 8 degrees above normal. Colder Thursday, warmer Friday and Saturday and cooler Sunday and Monday. Precipitation will average 1/2 to 3/4 inch as snow flurries Wednesday night and showers Saturday and Sunday.

Eastern Pennsylvania, southeastern New York and New Jersey—Temperatures are expected to average 2 to 8 degrees above normal with little day to day change. Precipitation may total five-tenths to seven-tenths inch, occurring as rain in southern portion and rain or snow in northern portion Saturday and Sunday.

Middle Atlantic States—Temperatures will average 4 to 6 degrees above normal. Cooler Thursday will be followed by warmer about Friday and cooler the first of next week. Rain amounts will average more than 1/2 inch occurring over the weekend.

NEW YORK (AP)—A novel by Conrad Richter was acclaimed by the National Book Committee (Tuesday) as the best of 1960.

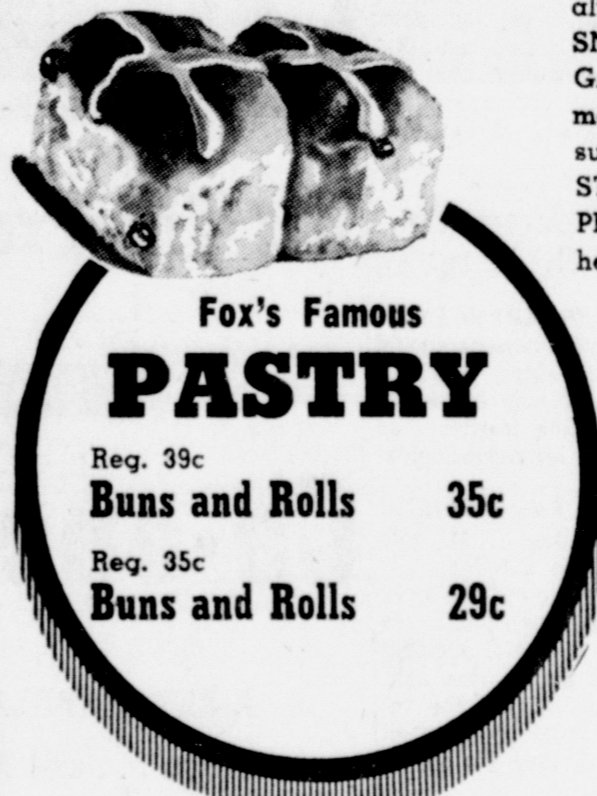

Richter, 70, a native of Pine Grove, Pa., wrote "The Waters of Kronos."

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy got hemisphere attention with the 10-point program he laid down this week for Latin America. But there wasn't much new in it. He had said most of it before, and then some.

During the presidential campaign—last Oct. 18 at Tampa—he proposed a 12-point program. But this latest one got maximum staging. He unveiled it during a White House reception for 250 Latin American diplomats.

They were generous in their praise for what he said. But back home officials of their governments were much more restrained. Some expressed disappointment.

HOW BIG IS IT?

It sounded big, the way Kennedy unfolded his program. But the unanswered question is: How really big is it? It isn't a Marshall plan like the one under which this country poured billions into Europe to get it on its feet after the war.

There's a difference. The millions of Europe were both educated and skilled and needed money to get their industries going again. In Latin America millions lack education and skills, too.

With them it's a problem of trying to bring them abreast of the 20th century. Kennedy didn't put a price tag on his proposals. He told the Latin Americans in effect that they'll have to help themselves to get help from us.

ASKS $500 MILLION

But he put it much more gently than that. As for immediate money he asked Congress to let him spend $500 million in Latin America for projects like education, health, housing, better use of land.

President Eisenhower asked Congress for the same amount and for the same purposes. Congress approved the spending but never actually voted the money. Now Kennedy has asked Congress to take that next and final step.

He acknowledged in Tampa last year $500 million is far from enough to meet Latin American needs.

ALL IN LOAN

He said then nearly all our economic aid to Latin America—which has been getting only about 5 per cent of our total foreign aid—has been in the form of loans to buy American exports.

He said Latin Americans would pay more in interest that year (1960) to the Export-Import Bank than the entire $500 million which Eisenhower asked from Congress.

Most of what Kennedy suggested this week was vague and generalized. But the heart of it was obvious enough.

He suggested long range aid over 10 years, based on cooperative, long-range planning by the Latin Americans.

DENIES INTENTION

Perhaps, although Kennedy denied any such intention, this 10-point, 10-year program, if it is to get moving, will mean the United States must get deeply involved in the internal affairs of its southern neighbors.

For instance: One of the deepest causes of unrest among the Latin American masses, and one which gives communism a big talking point, is the economic monopoly of the rich on land and resources.

A congressional report last month, made by House members after a trip through Latin Amer-

ROBBERY LOOT SPLIT PILLOW SAYS OFFICER

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A Philadelphia detective testified that the conspirators who looted the Rich home here in 1959, got tired counting the money and that the weight of it split the pillow case they were stuffing it into.

George Gill, a member of Pottsville, said one major obstacle to progress there is that 50 per cent of all land is owned by 1 1/2 per cent of the landholders.

ASKS TAX, LAUD REFORM

Kennedy called for both tax and land reform if the needs of most Latin Americans are to be met. There was a hint in what he said that unless a Latin-American country institutes reforms, it can't expect help.

Also last month two senators—Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa—made a report of their own on Latin America. They said: Latin America's upper classes must recognize they can no longer maintain "their traditional elite society and economic monopoly."

If the upper classes seek "blindly and stubbornly to retain all their privileged status they will almost surely lose everything," the senators added.

It's an old story: How to persuade those who have to give up some of it peacefully. If they don't, they may suddenly find the Communists have taken over.

If this should happen in one or two mainland Latin-American countries, the problem of reform might be simplified by scaring both the rich and the governments into fast action to save themselves from total disaster.

Wants Citizens To Know Of Attacks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An Air Force officer says citizens should find out what an enemy attack is like, and a good way is to test missiles over home territory, as the Russians do, for psychological effect.

Lt. Col. Roy O. Roberts of Holloman Air Force Base, N.M., told a news conference Tuesday: "We will evacuate certain corridors for the time being just as we do at sea. The chance of accident would be small because the missiles tested would be of the reliable type and subject to destruction in the air if they got out of line."

Gill said Poulson told him also that he and his pals counted the money several times, but grew weary and never got beyond $400,000 in their reckoning, thus accounting for the variance in the defendants' reports of the total taken.

Poulson and the others are charged with looting the safe of coal magnate John B. Rich in August, 1959, while Rich and his wife were on holiday in Europe. Gill quoted Poulson as saying, in a prison interview, that the burglars found so much money in the safe that the butt end of a pillow case burst open, spilling the cash on the floor.

Gill said Poulson told him also that he and his pals counted the money several times, but grew weary and never got beyond $400,000 in their reckoning, thus accounting for the variance in the defendants' reports of the total taken.

MOTORIST IS BEATEN, SHOT BY HITCHHIKER

BELLE VERNON, Pa. (AP)—A 36-year-old Fayette County man, forced to drive throughout the night at gunpoint, was beaten and shot early Wednesday by an unwanted hitchhiker.

Harold H. Jones of Uniontown, shot in the left thigh and lower body, staggered to a farm house on Route 981 and had a farmer notify state police. He also suffered a possible skull fracture.

State police said Jones told them this story:

"At dusk Tuesday night he stopped for a traffic light at an intersection in Uniontown when a man bolted into his auto, stuck a gun into his ribs and told him: 'You're taking me to Baltimore.' Jones started in the direction of Brownsville on Route 40, then cut off driving through small mining communities. Shortly before 5 a. m. the man told him to pull over.

STRUCK WITH GUN

"I'm taking your car," he told Jones. Jones made a grab for the keys in the ignition and the hitchhiker hit him over the head five or six times with the gun. Jones finally got the keys and started for a cornfield. The hitchhiker fired twice, hitting Jones with both shots.

"Jones made his way deeper in-

Abbottstown

MRS. DELLA BUTT

ABBOTTSTOWN—The Rev. Dr. George Sheffer, pastor of the New Oxford Lutheran Church will preach March 22 in St. John's Lutheran Church.

Confirmation and the reception of new members will take place Palm Sunday at 10:30 a.m. in St. John's Lutheran Church.

to the cornfield and lay there for about a half hour. He then staggered to a farm house.

His condition at Charleroi-Monessen Hospital was reported as fair.

State police said Jones told them the gunman was a man about 30, about 5 feet, 6 inches tall, and of medium build.

Altar flowers were placed in the church last Sunday in memory of Sylvia Hoffheins by her nieces, Janet, Ruthetta, and Vivian.

The executive committee of the United Lutheran Church Women will meet in the parlor Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Lutheran League will meet at 6:30 p.m. The catechetical class will hold its final session Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The pastor's class and the church school will meet Sunday at 9:15 a.m. The youth choir will meet Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Plans have been completed for the renovation of the social room to convert it for use by the primary department of the church school.

Car Stalls On Railroad Tracks

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—In a rush-hour traffic jam, mechanic Roland Meres was stranded dead center on a Southern Pacific crossing Tuesday with a train churning down the track.

Meres tried to back up, but another car had pulled up tight against his rear bumper. He rammed his car into the vehicle in front of him. He nearly made it.

The diesel engine hit his car on the rear fender, spun it around and threw Meres' passenger Fred O'Shea to the ground. O'Shea suffered minor injuries. Meres was unhurt.

Buying a USED CAR?

Timely Tips That Can Help Protect Your Investment!

1. Choose your dealer carefully.
2. Buy only from a well established reputable dealer.
3. Buy only from a dealer who maintains his own adequate facilities to service the car you buy.
4. Insist on a WARRANTY in writing that can be "backed-up."
5. BUYING from a NEW CAR DEALER IS YOUR BEST BET. . . . Most new car dealers sell locally owned trade-ins, not Used Cars obtained from Auto Auctions or distress merchandise from large cities.
6. Insist on knowing where the Used Car came from. "Ask who was the previous owner." Most new car dealers will be happy to tell you and invite you to contact the previous owner.
7. New Cars bought from Used Car Dealers . . . REMEMBER, only the New Car Dealer is authorized to extend a FACTORY WARRANTY to a buyer, NO ONE ELSE.
